Today's Speaker:

“A wartime veteran (U.S. Navy) 1970-1975, U. S. Forest Service 1975-1981 and a career in environmental management and engineering 1982-1993 are just a few of the opportunities God has blessed me with. Since 1985 I have served on several Christian Boards with both evangelistic and educational ministries. I have been in full time ministry for the last 15 years serving first with CityTeam Ministries and now as the Executive Director of Teen Challenge Monterey Bay. I have been happily married for over 35 years and have 3 children and 3 grandchildren.”

May 31 Meeting:

Only one guest, Scott Sawyer, chiropractor, was a guest of Dan Aldrich

Bob Bosso reminded us in his invocation, that despite our differences, we are the same in Rotary spirit.

Jeanette Pagliaro won the Keith McKenzie raffle prize.

Michael Allard is one of my favorite detectives, and his performance last week was a review of why I feel that way. He is hip with sunglasses, and used a little ‘overhead projector’ to help display his current and past talent. Some of his cute quotes, “Happy dollars are bunk,” and “I’m retiring as detective,” Some of his detective themes from the past: “celebrity look-alikes, people who share the same name, anagrams, (for example Blaine Brokaw = Bleak Rainbow) Here is some proof that happy dollars are not bunk: John and Linda’s son Jason not only recieved his PhD in physical chemistry from UCSC, he got a job! Matt Shelton got married in Mexico. Not sure whether the bride was Vanessa or some beach babe. (Another shortcoming of this editor-- poor fact checking). Michelle Krassow graduated from law school.

Last Week's Speaker

Tom Conway, CEO, Central California Easter Seals, revealed some cool history of Easter Seals.
Easter Seals was founded in 1919, by Edgar Allan, a Rotarian. In 1930 the ‘Children’s Charter’ was created by Edgar Allan and Paul Harris

Easter Seals mission serves adults and children. There are even services for autism.

Camp Harmon is the jewel in Boulder Creek for campers with disabilities. 2014 it will celebrate its 50th anniversary.

Mr. Conway introduced his ambassador for the camp, Ellen Sweigert. She captivated us with her presentation of how Easter Seals helped her. At Camp Harmon, she knows people will listen to her.
There, she is with others with disabilities, exploring drama and arts, developing teamwork and having a social life.

Please note:
