June 7 Meeting:

Guests:

Constatine Gehriger, SC Sunrise

Leigh Selby, guest of Gerry Turgeon

Alison Ruday, guest of Bob Davidson

Brian Kendell, prospective member

Winning number, 907398, won for Hank Olsen. Thank you Heather Stiles for supplying the drawing thing-a-ma-jig.

Tom Foster filled in as detective, at a moments’ notice. Not only did he do a fine job, he got a good round of applause when he left the dais. This editor can’t remember or write fast enough to do justice to all the happy dollars announcements, (which are not bunk, M.A.) However, easy to remember, Peter Cooke’s 22 month old daughter took her diaper off herself.

We had some special visiting Rotarians from Kezesa, Uganda. The mayor, the city manager, a representative from the chamber of commerce, a general contractor, and at our table, Godfrey Karozi, trained at UCSC in agribusiness, trains farmers in Ugandi. In Uganda, Rotary is BIG.

Last Week’s Speaker

Mike Borden, executive director of Monterey Bay Teem Challenge, and Pajaro Rescue Mission, began by announcing that Pajaro Valley Chamber of Commerce awarded them “organization of the year.”

At the Pajaro Rescue Mission the guests live clean and sober for one year, they learn skills to support themselves, have opportunity to meet Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. They turn food prep into careers. As a culinary school, they learn hospitality while they prepare 19,000 meals per month. Then the get a job at their lodge/restaurant in the mountains of Placer County.

On an annual budget of $550,000 they run seven centers, provide 77,000 nights of shelter. They have teen beds/shelter, and women’s shelter. They are open to receive drug addicts, if they want help. Their success rate is 75% at five years. And they do not take any funding from the government. And ‘students’ pay nothing for the program.

Please note:

Tonight’s social, the last of Janet’s president term, will be held at Cafe Mare, 740 Front St, from 5 until 7.

How could I have missed this: The team of Wes Walker, Tom Canfield and Sid Slatter won the Sunrise Rotary Golf Tournament, two weeks ago. Way to go, gentlemen.

It is with regrets that the Board of Directors has accepted the resignations of Tom O’Rourke and Eric Easter.
