Discovering the Seymour Marine Discovery Center
There’s more to the Seymour Marine Discovery Center than the 87-foot blue whale skeletonby the front door. (It may be the largest skeleton display in the world!) Families, school groups, and individuals come here to learn about marine life in the Monterey Bay. Exhibits, an aquarium, and art and science activities are just part of the fun right here in our own backyard. Katherine Moore, Development Director for the Seymour Discovery Center, will explain it all to us.

Last Week’s Speaker

The end stages of life are not easy to discuss. Often, family and friends have a harder time than the person who’s dying. Hospice is there for all of them. Michael Milward, executive director of Hospice, gave a picture of the services they offer – everything from pain meds to family support to grief counseling.

He said that people who receive Hospice services live longer and have a better quality of life than those who do not. Hospice is covered by Medicare and other types of insurance.

Welcome New Prospects

Four new prospects are proposed for club membership. Donna Maurillo proposed Katrina Cope, Kris Munro proposed Molly Parks, Elizabeth Clifton proposed Edward Durkee, and Wally Walker proposed Stoney Brook. If you have comments, contact Ian Mackenzie within 7 days or forever hold your peace.

Love Those Pets

Aleene “Blond Again” Althouse was detective. Instead of fines, Rotarians paid a fee to buy pet treats. It was how animal-lover Aleene celebrated Valentine’s Day for our four-legged friends. Tom “Coaster” Canfield had the most unusual pets – goats. But can they fetch his slippers? Annie Asche said she wanted a cat. Al didn’t. So they compromised and got the cat. Stay tuned to see how that works out.

Door Prize

It was a cash prize of $100 for the lucky winner this week... bank president David Heald. He’s probably seen plenty of those Benjamins in a day’s work, so he donated the money back to the club. President Jim followed the Four-Way Test and didn’t put the cash into his own pocket.

Tape This to Your Forehead

Some Rotarians are claiming they don’t know about our upcoming fundraiser. Seriously, people. Get a big fat clue. Cut out the following information and tape it to your forehead:

Theme: Duck Dynasty

Date: Saturday evening, April 23, 2016

Place: Holy Cross Parish Hall

Catering: Scopazzi’s Restaurant

Dress: Go according to the theme – Ducks, hunting, camouflage, backwoods Louisiana, duck calls, cutoff shorts, bib overalls, and such. For ideas, just Google “Duck Dynasty fashion.”

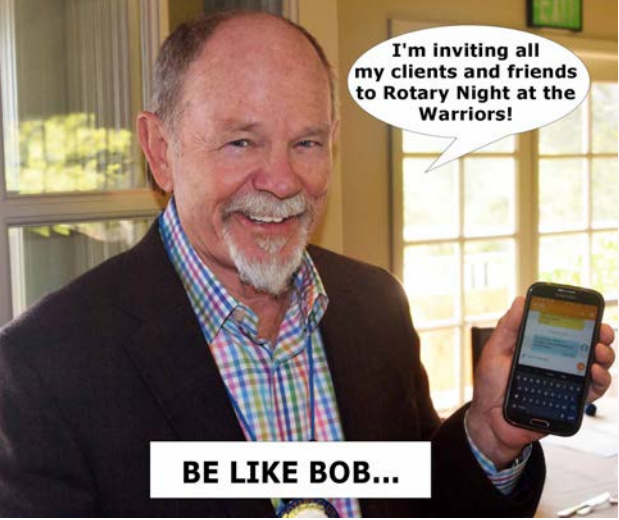

Basketball Again!!!

Rotary Night at the Warriors has been a smash hit each year. So we’re dong it again. Order tickets from Michael Harrison -- $25 each with a game t-shirt. Game time is Sunday, March 13, with tip-off at 6pm. A portion of the ticket sales benefit our club. The Santa Cruz Warriors are great community supporters, so let’s show them once again that we love our home team!

Club Social

We can’t repeat this often enough. Our club socials are always fun because they give us a chance to relax (even more than usual), enjoy some wine, and mingle with Rotary friends without time constraints of a meeting. Of course, bring your main squeeze.

Tom “The Bomb” Parker is hosting at his home next Saturday, February 27, from 4-7pm. Bring your own bottle, and Tom will provide the snacks. His address is 210 Sunset Ave, Santa Cruz. Dress casual, but wear clean socks.

We’re Getting a New Website

(Yes, this is a repeat of last week’s item because I got the date wrong.) Peter “The IT Guy” Huemer has stepped up in admirable fashion to redesign our Club’s website. We’ll have a preview right after today’s meeting. Stick around if you want to see it. You’ll be impressed. Thanks to President Jim for spearheading the effort.
