Today's Program

Ryan Coonerty, Santa Cruz County Supervisor

"Innovation (Yes, Innovation) in County Government"

Ryan Coonerty is a Supervisor for Santa Cruz County and a two-time former mayor of the City of Santa Cruz. He is the cofounder of NextSpace Coworking + Innovation, a lecturer on law and government at UC Santa Cruz, and co-author of The Rise of the Naked Economy – How to Benefit from the Changing Workplace. He also wrote Etched in Stone – Enduring Words from our National Monuments. Ryan was selected by the Aspen Institute to be a Rodel Fellow in Public Leadership as one of "the nation's most promising young elected officials."

Last Week’s Speaker

Back in the 1970s, when the Long Marine Lab, and its environs were just a gleam in the eye of UCSC, who could have imagined that it would grow to become a noted center for marine research? The property includes the Seymour Marine Discovery Center, California Sea Grant, USGS, NOAA, Island Conservation, etc.

The Center is named for Boyd Seymour, who wanted to gift Stanford University. But he was turned down because the gift was too small. So UCSC jumped up and said it would take the grant. The rest is history.

Good to See Ya!!

Last week, we were graced by the presence of a few Rotarians who have been sidelined by illness. But they’re back on their feet and in fine form once again. It was great to see Steve Spragens, Ed Penniman, and Mario Luis.

Old Guys’ Club

Gary “New Old Fart” Reece celebrated his 70th birthday by using age as the basis for his detective report. He ended up raking in about $350. Or maybe $592. Or maybe $1,903. He’s having trouble remembering much lately.

The Social Is Tomorrow!!

Wear your clean Dockers tomorrow night. We’re gathering at Tom “Tom” Parker’s home to see how civilized we are outside of our Friday meetings. (Pretty low bar, but we’ll try to pretend we have some class.) Meet us at 210 Sunset Ave., Santa Cruz, from 4-7pm. Bring a bottle. Tom will have the snacks all laid out.

We Won’t Mention This

We won’t mention the Duck Dynasty event on Saturday, April 23, at Holy Cross Hall because we know you’re tired of hearing about it. Just buy the tickets and show up. And bid. You have to bid on the auction.

New Web Site!

Our new Santa Cruz Rotary website is up and running. We think it’s the best site in all of the Rotary Kingdom. More photos! A calendar! A splash page! (Nothing to do with water...) Go to www.santacruzrotary.com and see what all the fuss is about. We are still working on making it perfect, but we think you will like it much better than the old site.

A huge HUGE thanks to Peter “Good Humor” Huemer and his User Friendly Computing for doing all the heavy lifting on this.

Call for Silent Auction Items

Yes, we said we wouldn’t mention this again. We lied. The Duck Dynasty event needs silent auction items. If you have something good to donate, see Sharon “Enforcer” Caiocca.

Something Fishy’s Going On

There’s reason to be suspicious when Santa Cruz County Bank officers win the door prize two weeks in a row. President Jim looked a bit reluctant to hand over the goods to Angelo “My Bank’s Better than Yours” DeBernardo. If it happens again this week, we’ll know there’s something evil afoot.

More Chance for Fun

Fork over a measly $25, and you can join us for Rotary Night at the Warriors. Game starts at 6pm on Sunday, March 13. Sit with some fine people... or with Santa Cruz Rotarians. The price includes a fine Italian-cut t-shirt.

See Us on Facebook

If you haven’t visited our Facebook page, you’re not keeping up. Just go to www.facebook.com/SantaCruzRotaryClub and post comments. Or gossip. Or good jokes.
