Todays Program

Michael Harrison-Vocational Scholarships

Today we get the opportunity to hear from the recipients of the Rotary Vocational Scholarships. The programs include Music, Culinary Arts, Medical and Dental Fields and Human Services. These students are doing some great things and it is always exciting to hear about their experiences.

Detective - George Gaulluci

Last Week

Last week the club met on the first day of a really hot weekend. Stoney Brook was present at the check-in table selling raffle tickets for another valuable prize. Stoney ran from the check-in table just in time to offer an invocation for the club.

President Sid opened the meeting and Jan Derecho led the club in the welcome song. From the photos it appears Lane Lawson won the raffle prize. Well done!

After announcements Sid introduced Jim Weisenstein who served as detective. Jim’s report included a series of fines related to past presidents of our club. As usual, Jim did a great job. I wasn’t there, however fellow past-president John Brokaw was and he gave it his stamp of approval.

David Terrazas was our guest speaker and he spoke about the City from his perspective as a City Councilman and the upcoming election for 4 open seats on the council. Since I wasn’t there I don’t know if he might have endorsed one or more of the candidates (my local source did not indicate any electioneering from Mr. Terrazas).

Past Presidents’ Dinner

Bruce Dunn served as chair of the Past Presidents’ Dinner on Wednesday. The affair is an annual event allowing Past Presidents to select a community member for an honorary Paul Harris Fellowship. It’s also a great time at a great venue (Hunter Hill Winery). The Slatter family with the assistance of Wes Walker has hosted this event for at least 10 years now, a generous gift to the past presidents and the club.

What to watch Monday

We have past presidents, current presidents and Monday we have a future president, ready to sling mud and talk around direct questions. Yes, it’s national politics with the Presidential Debate. I’ve been ignoring both candidates to this point and hope Monday evening’s viewing of the proceedings will reignite my interest in national politics, meh.

Club BBQ:

October 14 is the club BBQ. This year several of the rides and Cave Train Plaza in the lower section of the boardwalk will be closed off for us to enjoy as a club. Invite your friends and family. Tickets are $35.

International Conference

The next RI Conference is in Atlanta, Georgia from June 10-14, 2017. See riconvention.org for more information.
