Detective - Dan Aldrich

Invocation: This day's invocation was delivered by Erik Dybdahl. He asked us to bow our heads in silence for a political prayer. Then he said "God please let this election season be over quickly."

Raffle: Molly Parks had a special day. She was one of our speakers so she was asked to pull the raffle ticket. The ticket she pulled was her own! She won a generous gift certificate to Oswald, a fine bottle of wine, and her own pair of Donald Trump socks guaranteed to make you look smart. Peter Prindle displayed his generosity in donating this gift.

Announcements: Rotary Night at the Santa Cruz Warriors will be Saturday February 11, 2017.

The Event "The British Invasion, March 11, 2017.

Our club presented a check for $1500 to Operation Love Our Vets charity. Lisa Tkotch accepted the check for the charity. The charity serves war veterans over 150 hot meals per week. The charity recently took a group of veterans to Tesla motors for operation love our vets. November is foundation month. John Huffman is warming up for this very important fundraiser. Please bring your checks during the month of November so we can help more people. This event is so important that our club will match certain contributions to get you to your next Paul Harris fellowship award.

Detective: Our detective report was presented by Jack Black Ritchey III. Jack began by telling us the pressure he felt to come up with a topic for the report. He felt lost so naturally he turned to the best detective he knew. He called Larry Wolfsen. Larry suggested the topic should be about surgeries Jack has had in the last six months. Jack is made of steel and doesn't require surgery. So he decided to ask his own wife. They were sharing their 48th anniversary recently. She suggested the topic should be about marriage. Those called upon were asked to share their secret to a marriage. Bob Rittenhouse thought the secret to a long marriage is patience. Bob Rudolph seemed unaware of any secrets but believes the secret to a long marriage is patience. Dick Muir went with the crowd and also believes the secret to long marriage patience. Bob Bosso couldn't resist and also recommended patience. Bob revealed that his spouse makes all the little decisions like where to live and what to do with their money. He focuses on the big stuff like ending world hunger. Russ Hobbs admitted he is always wrong and believes in just a little more patience.

Program: We learned a lot about Kris Munro and Molly Parks. They presented their red badge speech in tandem. Kris grew up in Milpita's where there were orchards everywhere. Molly grew up learning from her mistakes in Santa Cruz. Kris's passions include reading, travel, good food, family and friends. Molly also enjoys traveling, especially to the beach. She appreciates spending time with her family, friends, and enjoying life. Kris began her career by teaching English in a classroom that had 24 different native language speakers at Prospect High. She then became a principal at Branciforte and grew from there to her current role as Superintendent of Santa Cruz city schools. Molly's career took her to Peru. She taught in Lima at the international school. She then moved back to Santa Cruz and went to Mission Hill. From there she moved to Gault School to be the principal. She now finds herself in the role of Assistant Superintendent of Santa Cruz city schools. We look forward to spending more time with Molly and Kris who seem like a dynamic duo.
