Rotary Veterans Program

Wes Walker, with the help of Michelle Anderson, volunteered to take on an enormous task interviewing and commemorating our own Santa Cruz Rotary Veterans. His dedication and commitment to properly recognizing and honoring our Veterans resulted in a DVD that he will share with us today. Thank you, Wes. We are forever indebted to you.

Editors Note: The content in this week's newsletter is provided by Donna Maurillo and Colleen Harrison. They volunteered to help me through an unexpected event that kept me from attending the meeting. Thank you Ladies!

Meeting: We had a packed house, showing that our club is quite popular and we love being together. Or maybe we just have no place better to have lunch on a Friday.

President Sid started the meeting off. For those that are keeping track that it was also the 18th meeting of the Reign of Slatter. The agenda was packed with many different items this week.

Chris Murphy and Jill Stone received their Blue Badges. Way to go! Now they're part of the "in crowd" and have the right to make fun of those who still wear red badges.

Chris Maffia, a VP with Santa Cruz County Bank, received this year's Honorary Paul Harris Fellowship to acknowledge her many years of supporting our local community. She was nominated by Janet Krassow at the annual Past Presidents' Dinner at Hunter Hill. Chris is married to Chuck Maffia, another of the bank's VPs. Honorary Fellowships are given to non-Rotarians who exemplify the Rotary motto of service above self.

As always, Donna Maurillo looked quite lovely. In fact, her hand looked extra lovely as she showed off the tanzanite and opal ring that Gary Reece gave her. She was quick to point out that it is not an engagement ring, but a "keep the guys away" ring.

Invocation: Linda Burroughs gave the invocation quoting a phrase from the final chorus from the opera, the Barber of Seville: Amore e fede eterna, si vegga in voi regnar- May love and faith eternally reign in your hearts!!

Raffle: Larry Wolfson auctioned off a generous donation from Fred Gawlick of two tickets to the Sound of Music in San Jose. Bob Rittenhouse was the highest bidder so you can ask him how he enjoyed the show. The money is going toward our final goal for the British Invasion event in March.

Announcements:
The Event "The British Invasion" March 11, 2017.

It's a November to remember to donate to the foundation. See John Huffman about joining the Paul Harris fellowship.

Rotary Night at the Santa Cruz Warriors will be Saturday February 11, 2017.

Detective: Aleene Althouse was pinch-hitter as detective. Time was short, so she raked in the bucks with happy dollars. It seems that a lot of Rotarians are very happy these days. It must be the meds.

Program: The symphony's maestro Danny Stewart updated us on the weekend's performance of "The Barber of Seville" at the Civic Auditorium. As it turned out, many Rotarians attended as part of the sold-out house to hear the outstanding vocals from members of the New York Met and the San Francisco Opera. Very chi-chi performers for our little city!

President Sid presented a check to the Young Writers Program. He was inspired when his daughter participated and he was privileged to hear her deliver a piece she'd written. In fact, he had a video of the event. Just as the video ended, Jim Bargetto's tweet popped up on the screen. Apparently he didn't realize that when you send a tweet to Ian's computer, it is visible to the entire club. Ian nearly broke his neck running to the front of the room to pull the plug on the laptop.
