Detective: Peter Prindle was our detective. He started his reporting in fashion. He wore a gorgeous cashmere sweater and began to remove it at the beginning of his show. Many in the crowd had aspirations for more. However, he had different intentions and kept the rest of his clothes on. He began with happy dollars. Maurice was happy that his brother had gotten married. Sharon Calocca was happy that her daughter, who is the coach of the San Rafael high school team, won her first game of the season. Tom Foster was happy that he is not a drug runner. Larry was happy to be wearing hot shoes. Peter Prindle began his show with more of the touch of risqué. He gave Maurice a black lacy bra and then fined him. He also fined John Huffman for a parking ticket. He then fined

Stoney Brooke because he is fond of Donna Maurillo. He fined Burt Reese for drinking an ancient bottle of whiskey. He fined Erik Dybdahl because he reminds him of a sea otter. He fined Keith Mackenzie but Keith had no money because he had forgotten his wallet so Peter fined Keith for driving without a license. He fined Tracy Bliss because she forgot to return her badge He fined Bob Bosso because he was a cab driver when he started working. Bob couldn't cut it as a cab driver so he became a lawyer instead. He fined Sid Slatter because he couldn't cut it as a hand model so he went into construction instead. He finally fined Russ Hobbs for stealing a homeless man's dog.

Program: Lisa Tkotch presented about Operation Love Our Vets aka O-Luv. It is a program that helps veterans. It started at Twin Lakes church with a focus for underserved vets. She looks at it as payback for the service that they have provided. She started the nonprofit by asking herself who could use the most encouragement. So she decided to help veterans. The job was very hard as she found out that you couldn't get the names of former military personnel. She eventually got the names because she convinced the officials that it was for a good cause. Her first project was mailing 78 care packages with for over 40 items in each to military personnel. When she finished with this project she still wanted to help so she volunteered at Palo Alto Veteran’s hospital. There she helped with operation merry Christmas. This involved building and planting a strawberry box. They also developed a beautiful landscape around it. Recently she took vets to Facebook for a luncheon. It has become an annual celebration. Operation love our vets is a 501(c)(3) organization so be sure to donate and get a federal and state tax break.
