Rotary Meeting:

Invocation: Peter Cook provided a beautiful invocation for our last meeting of 2016.

Raffle Prize: Al Smith (Annie Asche’s significant other) won the raffle prize. He said the prize was a beautiful bottle of wine and a generous gift certificate provided by Ed Durkee.

Detective Report: Santa Burroughs, our detective came to the meeting in a Santa onesie. The only thing missing was his big jolly belly. He’ll have to work on that for next year. He and Mrs. Claus (Linda) were very generous to “match” any detective fines collected for the meeting. There were lots of happy dollars and fines collected. Great job!

Our December 16th meeting was our holiday program and our Holiday Program coordinator, Linda Burroughs did not disappoint. Our rooms at The Back Nine were transformed into a small dance studio with chairs arranged in the back to see the program. Linda arranged to have the Agape Dance Academy perform for us. This year they performed the Nutcracker at the Henry Mello Center in Watsonville during the holidays. The performance was really beautiful and the music put everyone into the holiday spirit.

The Agape Dance Academy is located on Mt. Hermon Road in Scotts Valley and Rio Del Mar Blvd. in Aptos. They have an amazing staff teaching dance to our youth in Santa Cruz County. You can learn more about them by visiting their website at: www.agapedance.com

I had to include this beautiful picture of the McKenzie’s in the Spokes this week. Too cute!!!

On Friday, December 30th 2016 our Club had a wonderful lunch “social” at Michael’s on Main which is the new adventure of our own Michael and Colleen Harrison. There is a great video of the lunch on our website with Sam Bishop playing the harmonica leading the group singing “Auld Lang Syne”. Goodbye 2016 and Welcome 2017!
