Detective Report: Past President Slatter donned a noticeably more casual wardrobe in his first day back since the end of The Reign of Slatter. He spent the better part of his detective report giving thanks and appreciation for those that helped him during his past year as President. What a guy!

Announcements

Rotary plaque will be unveiled at the Parklet along the Riverwalk. Friday, July 14th 10:30am is the official dedication of the Parklet our Club has sponsored.

It was great to see Frank Minuti back with the club and looking fantastic. Welcome back Frank!

Last Week's Program

We had the great fortune of listening to President Annie Asche as she shared her Rotary story.

President Asche wasn't necessarily drinking the Kool-Aid at the beginning of her Rotary adventure, but since then she's grown to think of the Santa Cruz

Rotary Club as family. Annie elegantly spoke about what Rotary has meant to her and the themes she would like to carry into her Presidency – Family & FUN!

The Fun-factor could not have been on display any more than it was when Annie shared the video of her experience at the Rotary Convention in The Peach State. Annie and Mary Rose Mackenzie cooled off by dancing through the fountains at Centennial Olympic Park on a warm Hot-lanta Night.
