Last Week's Highlights

Invocation: Jane McKenzie gave us a lovely excerpt from Desiderata that finished off by reminding us that “it is still a beautiful world.”

Raffle Winner: The biggest prize in my tenure was up for grabs. It included 4 Giants tickets for the upcoming Labor Day weekend. Allan Dow was the lucky winner and promised a ticket to the first Rotarian who offered to drive.

Detective Report: We learned many things about fatherhood and marriage during the detective report. Tom Castillo celebrated his 5th wedding anniversary serving as detective.

Misc: Kieran Shah was awarded his red badge. Welcome to the club!

Aleene Althouse's daughter, Avalon, was presented with a Paul Harris Fellowship! Avalon is also our club's exchange student who will be traveling to Belgium during the current school year.

Last Week's Program

Maurice Carrillo introduced our district's International Youth Exchange Inbound Coordinator, Mark Junod. Mark shared his thoughts on the program which can be summarized by a simple quote, “if every student did an exchange the world would know peace.”

A few facts shared by Mark...
- The Rotary Club of Copenhagen was the first club to participate in the youth exchange back in 1927.

- Jim Zenner is a former youth exchange student who travelled to South Africa.

Mark then introduced our most recent exchange student, Katy Munger. Katy was a Santa Cruz High student who did her exchange in Rojas, Argentina. The Rotary club in Rojas is comprised of approximately 15 members. She shared her experience with the club about traveling the entire country of Argentina and also about her time with the three host families she stayed with.
