5/18 – Rotary Roundup at the Coconut Grove

Last Week's Highlights

Invocation: Jeanette Pagliaro shared a thoughtful prayer for those suffering both in general and in light of recent violence.

Raffle Winner: Wally Walker was the lucky winner, but he bequeathed his winnings to Steve Karon. Among the prizes, lots of Slatter Construction schwag, 2 bottles of "collector's edition" Hunter Hill Vineyards vino, and a gift certificate to Michaels on Main Street in Soquel. Thanks Sid!

Detective Report: Ed Durkee educated the club on the history of Goodwill in the Santa Cruz community. Goodwill has recently moved into its 3rd headquarter building. Many club members have connections to Goodwill, including:

The late Ralph Bargetto, father of Jim Bargetto, former Chairman of the Board.

Burt Rees, former Chairman of the Board.

Last Week's Program: Second Harvest Food Bank Santa Cruz County

Jan Kamman gave an informative and thoughtful presentation full of insightful figures and statistics about Second Harvest Food Bank Santa Cruz County ("Second Harvest"). For instance, did you know that approximately 20% of the county needs help with food? Many of the folks that need help are our neighbors, our employees and those serving us throughout the county.

In addition to providing support to those in need, Second Harvest works to educate about nutrition and recipes that support good health and resourcefulness among those that it works to help.

Astonishingly, the Second Harvest is able to feed people four meals for just a single dollar! They're able to do that through wholesale prices and 3,000 volunteers throughout the county.
