January 5, 2018 New Year KICK-OFF

If you missed last week’s meeting, this article doesn’t properly represent the quality of our first gathering of 2018. You should have been there ...

As we sat for lunch, we were treated to a rotating photo collage of 2017 meetings and events.

Unfortunately, we started on a low note (pun intended) for there were not any musicians in attendance. We rallied with a great welcome song led by none other than Jan Derecho.

John Huffman announced we had exceeded our goal for the Santa Cruz Rotary Foundation with donations of $20,850 and with 64% of all Rotarians participating. Rock On ...

Mike Allard and Ross Condit received Paul Harris Plus recognition.

Our detective grand master, Jim Bargetto, raised $431! Special recognition to Tom Castillo for having a baby on the way, and both Linda and John Burroughs for their recent retirements.

My wife and I were happy for 20 years, then we met.
Michael Harrison

Kris Munro won the door prize of an Olitas gift certificate and a bottle of wine donated by Dan Aldrich.

Our program was Doron Comerchero founder of Food What? Food What is a program primarily centered on youth empowerment and food justice. By engaging youth in learning how to grow food, they teach a wide range of life skills. Learning about good food and working in a supportive team atmosphere (safe space) has transformative effects on young people. The positive messaging of being able to do more and be more creates self-esteem and aspirational attitudes.

I looked up my family tree and found three dogs using it.
