Today's Program
Santa Cruz Warriors and G League Update
by Fellow Rotarian - Chris Murphy,
President, Santa Cruz Warriors

Years of banging his head on rim took its' toll on this top NBA prospect. His doctor ordered "no more dunking" so he hung up his Air Jordan's and joined the ranks of management. Chris runs the most successful G league team in the Nation! The SANTA CRUZ WARRIORS!

We are proud of our Rotary brother and grateful for his contribution to our community and club.

FEBRUARY 2nd Meeting Recap

Peter Cook set the tone for our meeting with a personal family prayer he shared for the invocation.

We had numerous guest including our speaker Michelle Costa’s mother.

Peter Cook shared the terrific result of the Bumper Car event. It was a financial success of which Rotarians Richard Beach, Tom Parker, Tom Foster, Annie Asche and Peter Cook were given special recognition for their respective generosity.

Mike Allard donated the proceeds from the sale of 4 Pebble Beach Golf Tourney tickets.

Jim Zenner won the Exempt Drawing for February.

Our detective Alan Nala (Tom Foster) used his time mostly for thoughtful recognition of Rotarians. Generous happy dollars, like Bob Bosso’s C-Note, took the pressure of Tom to fine.

We learned Donna Maurillo has a “type” when it comes to men – ask her to explain. Wes Walker has photos on the Dark Net that could cause a problem as his works his way up to RI President.

“RED BADGE SPEECHES”

You should have been there ...

Michelle Costa gave a most inspiring recap of her life story. Her ability to overcome incredible adversity at age 22 was captivating. She is today a positive, successful and delightful member of our local community and Rotary Club. At the conclusion of her speech she received a Standing-O.

Robert Armbrust was lots of fun and gave us a lot to think about. He has had a fascinating career in the Non-Profit arena, lived in many places and has a wide range of interests – from Drag Racing to Elephant Conservancy. We know he sports a tattoo somewhere on his body.

Membership: Linda Burroughs has proposed Tana Widdows for membership. Any member comments must be made to the Club Secretary within 7 days.
