September 13: Rotary BBQ in lieu of our weekly meeting. I hear John "Brisket" Burroughs will be doing his thing.

July 19 Recap

Our speaker last week was Kate Roberts, President of the Monterey Bay Economic Partnership ("MBEP"). MBEP focuses improving economic health and quality of life in the Monterey, San Benito and Santa Cruz Counties. They have a strong board of directors that consists of prominent business leaders in the Tri-County Area, including some of our Club members such as David Heald and Ed Durkee.

MBEP has four core areas that they devote most of their resources to. Those four areas are 1) Transportation, 2) Housing, 3) Workforce Development, and 4) Building a Tech Ecosystem. Kate mentioned the housing trust they set up that raised $12.25M in funds to help facilitate affordable housing developments. To date, 4 projects have been funded and 6 are in the pipeline. She also spoke about their website developed towards connecting students with local employers. Please visit mbep.biz if you'd like to learn more.

National Ed Durkee Day!!!

For as long as I can remember, this was the first time a member pulled off the trifecta – raffle prize, invocation and detective. That member was Ed Durkee, and from now on July 19th shall always be remembered as Ed Durkee Day! Let's take a stroll and recall some of the moments from this memorable day...

Dave Dreyfus pictured with Ed Durkee. Dave was first in line to take pictures with the famous Ed Durkee on Ed Durkee Day! Afterwards, they proceeded to show some Hoosier pride with a song about Indiana.

Ed Durkee pictured here during his great detective report. Ed Durkee raised an enormous amount of money on this great day for an even better cause.

As you may have noticed, Martin Bernal is our speaker today and is known for commemorating special days in the City of Santa Cruz. Will today be one of those days? Although I'm sure you're tired of hearing the name, you may be hearing the name Ed Durkee one more time...
