August 2 Recap

We were fortunate to host Congressman Jimmy Panetta at our last luncheon. He came in and avoided the political rhetoric anyone expected to hear. Congressman Panetta focused on the fact that there are many distractions throughout the country, but he and Congress continue to legislate. He pointed to the many bills the House has passed during his tenure, which the media doesn't cover. The highlight of the program was likely his joke about mammonis that helped illustrate the struggle of partisan politics. As to why there was no time left for Q&A...we'll get to that later!

However, it didn't start off as smooth as it appeared. There was worry, stress and contemplation as the clock grew closer to 12:30 and there was still no sign of Jimmy! I, the editor and program chair, decided to wait outside and consider my next step; should I give my best Jimmy Panetta impersonation or get in the car and never look back? In reality, neither of those were an option as many fellow Rotarians offered suggestions on impromptu presentations they could give. Many thanks to all those Rotarians with a Rotary program in their back pocket.

Miscellaneous

Kasey Hinchman pictured here saying whatever he wants during his detective report. Now, to get back to the topic of Q&A. I hinted to Kasey to keep his report short, but he hit me with the "not now chief, I'm in the zone" look! FYI, Jimmy mentioned that our fines were a little light compared to his days in the Salinas Rotary Club.

Rachel Kippen, Executive Director of O'Neill Sea Odyssey, was present to graciously accept a contribution from the Benevolence and Grants committee.
