Rotary Connects the World

Dr. David A. Clark

Detective - Alliah Sheta

Quote of the day: “Shake it up” Erik “cue ball” Dybdahl

Guests: It was a diverse group of guests that included international members. We had a friend from Helsinki University join us. We also met a representative from the first five program. Members of the Santa Cruz Warriors also were among us. Finally, none other than the famous kicker from the San Francisco 49ers, Joe Nedney.

Invocation: Traci “Ignorance is” Bliss read us psalm 100. It is a prayer about giving thankful praise to our lord. It is a reminder that we are entering the thanksgiving season.

Raffle: Bob “hot rod” Davidson sponsored this week’s raffle. It included the powerful variation of both white and red wines. These bottles will be a great way to begin the evening before using the also included gift card to the Hindquarters. This truly enjoyable gift was won by Annie “one” Asche.

Announcements: It was a full slate of organizational announcements. Our Rotary club introduced the future leaders of our group. Join me in shouting Congratulations to our President Designate for 2021-22 Jeanette “next in line” Pagliaro and our directors for 2020-2022 John “hanging in the” Burroughs, Kasey “evil” Hinchman, Alliah “better” Sheta, and Tana “black” Widdows. Also announced was the nominating committee for the next round of officers. The members are Jim “cracking” Weisenstein, Sid “merica” Slatter, Annie “who” Asche, and Wes “spit and vinegar” Walker. Join me in thanking them for working on this important task.

Detective: Michael “they made me” Hughett began his report by asking us for happy dollars. A lady stood up from the crowd. She asked “young man, I’ve got something happy for you for a dollar.” Now where I grew up that meant something different than what it means to our group. Turns out Donna “cat’s meow” Maurillo grew up the same neighborhood because she proceeded to remove her overcoat and flashed our detective. Unfazed by this extravagant reveal, our fine detective called on Sharon “polka” Caiocca who was happy that veterans of our military were around and thanked them for their service. Annie “way” Asche was also happy that Tom “that’s not a beer”

Foster helped her with a real estate exchange. Our detective who has seen many women flash him, has only seen two Rotarians sleeping at our exciting meetings. Those two people are Dan “sleepy time” Aldrich and Jim “night night” Courtright.

Program: Stoney “pathway” Brooke who is an alum of the marine core and the FBI national academy spent 30 years as a peace officer. This background gives him unique insight into good practices for handling veterans that find themselves in criminal difficulty. Stoney explained that veterans struggle with addiction and PTSD. Most veterans are jailed for trauma from their active service and the addictions that result from treatment. The Veterans treatment court helps veterans regain their dignity and find footing in our society. Stoney explained that our local court was operational in 2015 and has proven to be 95% effective in helping veterans avoid jail time and begin a peer led treatment program. In some communities benefits for veterans are in silos and it proves difficult for veterans to navigate and get the help they need. Santa Cruz has a unique situation in that the team that needs to act cohesively: the Santa Cruz County District Attorney, Public Defender, and Judge are all former service members. By the numbers the program has referred 206 cases, is currently working on 23 active court cases, has 93 graduates, and placed 16 veterans in peer support treatment.
