Kathy McKenzie
Voices of Monterey Bay

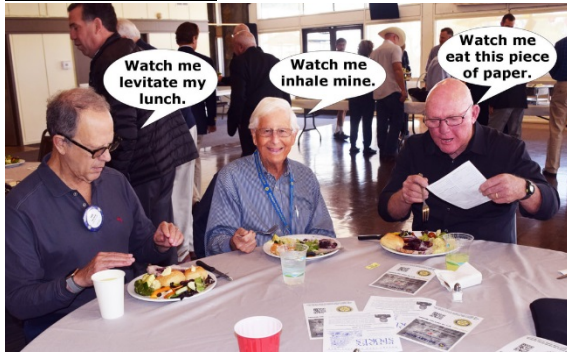

Kathy McKenzie grew up in Santa Cruz County and always knew she wanted to be a writer. She earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from Cal Poly San Luis Obispo and did her internship at the Santa Cruz Sentinel, and then went on to work at several different Central Coast newspapers, including the Monterey Herald, where she spent 10 years as a features writer. She is now a freelance writer and editor who writes for numerous publications and websites, and lives in North Monterey County.

Programs - Michele Costa

Invocation - Wes Walker

Detective - Jack Ritchey III

Announcements

Membership: Elizabeth Clifton-Doolin has proposed Ceil Cirillo for membership. Any member comments must be made to the Club Secretary within 7 days.

Bricks. We need more bricks purchased. Veterans Club members are encouraged to purchase bricks on behalf of some of our club's veterans as well as other veterans in your family, personal network or professional network. We'll need to reach out beyond our own club to get this done. Please see Debbie McCarroll, Director of Community Service for more details.

Last Week's Highlights:

Invocation: Debbie McCarroll left the club with great thoughts and feelings.

Rotary History: Marv Jensen took us on a walk down memory lane as he highlighted the club's past work on community projects, specifically, Santa Cruz High School's Memorial Field gate.

Detective: Tom Foster's fiancée, Claire, joined him at the front of the table for maximum support.

Tom threw in a few happy dollars. Something about going $110 miles per hour. Blaine Brokaw is throwing in $1 for being his insurance agent. Not a bad start!

Chris Murphy fined $10 for a basketball program the weekend of the Super Bowl. The Super Bowl didn't turn out well, but we can't blame that on Chris.

Tom then led the club in a minute of thoughtful reflection about those we have lost.

Raffle Winner: One of the fine residents of Upper Winkle wins for the 2nd week in a row (1/24 Erik Dybdahl). If Chris Murphy wins this week, we'll have completed the Upper Winkle trifecta. And he's got a good shot. Wally Dale's strategy of being near the last to buy a raffle ticket has paid off, and Chris, being from a copycat league in the NBA, is ready to implement the strategy himself. Apparently, we're not shaking up the bucket well enough. It was a beautiful bottle of wine and gift card from Elizabeth Clifton-Doolin. Thank you!

Last Week's Program – Ryan Atkinson: Santa Cruz Warriors GM

Chris Murphy and Ryan Atkinson held a "town hall" style meeting for our club where they shared some great insights into the Santa Cruz and Golden State Warriors franchises.

Ryan Atkinson is the general manager of the Santa Cruz Warriors. He is the eyes and ears for Golden State Warriors' Bob Meyer's in Santa Cruz.
