Last Week's Highlights:

History: John Huffman brought us back in time to his presidency which was shaped by the 1989 Loma Prieta Earthquake. During that time, John led the club in establishing a Rotary Disaster Relief Fund to help the community. The Downtown Association received $15K for the aftershock entryway project, and under John's leadership our club provided over $65,000 in financial support and assistance within our community. Great job, John! Big thanks to John and Marv Jensen for putting the history presentation together, and big thanks to President Condit and Marv for reviving the Historian role within the club.

Invocation, Annie Asche. You only get to vote once every couple of years, but you get to volunteer every day to shape the community you want to live in.

Detective: Angelo DeBernardo kept us guessing who our fellow Rotarians were. The loose theme was thrill seekers, and nobody got a bigger thrill than the owner of a beautiful home right on the golf course at Carmel Valley Ranch. Why? Well, because Mike Allard managed to hook and slice two golf balls into the man's house on back-to-back holes. What're the odds? Grip it and rip it, Mike!

Raffle Winner: Fred Gawlick took home a nice bottle of Tobin James and a gift card to Caruso's thanks to Jeanette Pagliaro. Thanks Jeanette!

Last Week's Program – Sister Cities

David Terrazas educated the club on the Sister Cities Program. Santa Cruz has 5 sister cities: Puerto La Cruz, Venezuela (1966); Shingu, Japan (1974); Sestri Levante, Italy (1980); Alushta Ukraine (1987); Jinotepe, Nicaragua (1993).

Alushta Ukraine, 1987: Gary was asked to visit where he presented our club's flag. Alushta later established Rotary Club...Why does it not surprise me that Gary Reece has a Ukraine connection?

Photo exhibition March 6 to support of Sister Cities 5:30pm at Café Iveta
