Speech Contest

Today, Bob Bosso and his team will host our club Speech Contest. This opportunity places local high school students in competition to deliver a speech worthy of advancement to our Area 7 Speech Contest and then on to the District 5170 contest. Each student will follow a prompt provided by the Speech Committee related to some aspect of Rotary and then each participant will craft a speech to embody the prompt with some part of their lives or some topic of importance to each of them. These speeches will be timed and judged on content and delivery.

Last Meeting February 10, 2023

Our meeting last week began with a few hiccups. First, the sound system was on “the fritz” and chose not to cooperate. Second we had a couple substitutions which were last minute.

Sam of course opened the meeting with America the Beautiful and Kasey Hinchman offered a thought for the day; which was about doing what you love.

Tom Foster offered the raffle gift and it was a well received large box of Mackenzie Chocolates and a large bottle of champagne (or sparkling wine for those who defer to frogs). Annie Asche won the drawing and was very pleased with the results.

Michele Costa was our detective for the day and she did a Valentine’s Day themed report asking for disappointing or otherwise awkward Valentine Day memories. Tom Parker was heartbroken at not receiving many Valentines in his elementary school days. Our table made a Valentine on the spot for Tom and other tables joined in with gifts of candy and of course well wishes. He may still need counseling.

Our guest speakers were Jim Zenner and Janet Gluch. They presented a report on their latest “Water Warrior” trip to Guatemala and detailed the work done there. Jim has spearheaded this international outreach for over 10 years and Janet has participated in 7 trips.

The need for water is the seed which has sprouted to include Eyeglass distribution, education on womens and girls health, outreach to help stop a bad domestic violence situation in Guatemala, and other local needs.

These trips include about 30 volunteers who pay their own way to travel and work with the project. That means all the money raised for the project goes to the actual work. Both Janet and Jim let us know the work is hard, however the reward is far greater than the efforts expended. The program was excellent and both spoke with volume and power requiring no amplification. Just great!

Several water warriors, including Mike Allard received a gift for their support over the years. Jim and Janet handed out lanyards as a token and thank you.

Planned Giving Workshop

Russ Hobbs announced a planned giving workshop to take place on the 21st of February. This is a project of our District Governor Savita Vaidhyanathan. It will be at Trinity Church and RSVP should be to Russ at 831-466-9524 or r4hobbs@aol.com.
