90 Years of Winemaking in the Santa Cruz Mountains with Commitment to Community

John Bargetto, part of the fourth generation of winemakers in the Santa Cruz Mountains, has dedicated his life to winemaking. With a degree in Enology and a minor in history from UC Davis, John took over the reins as winemaker at Bargetto Winery in Soquel in the mid-1980s. Envisioning the benefits from marketing he earned an MBA from the University of Notre Dame. Soon after, in the early 1990s, he established the Regan Vineyards Estate, featuring 7 varietals and most importantly, cool climate Pinot Noir.

Last Meeting March 10, 2023

Richard Beach started off with some words of wisdom about marriage: "It's not about when two perfect people come together, but about when two imperfect people can come together and enjoy their differences."

Congrats to James Kelly for winning today's raffle (that's two in a row!). The prize was a bottle of Prosecco and a generous restaurant gift certificate. Thanks to Richard Beach for the raffle prize donation!

Russ Hobbs was our detective and he jumped right in to celebrate March birthdays. Every Rotarian born in the month of March enjoyed a fine of $25 and the opportunity to share a memorable bday moment.

Russ noted he just celebrated his 80th birthday and his fave bday moment was when he turned 25 and bought a new car. Erik shared that on his 21st birthday his parents left him in charge of the house so he threw a party (perfect timing!). Tom talked of when he turned 8 and he went to Marianne's Ice Cream for an ice cream delight. And when Duf was asked about his fave memory - he noted that he's already thinking ahead to his next one. Not in the house but fined for good measure: Jack Ritchey, Sam Bishop and Jim Courtright. Additional celebrations received a fine including Richard Beach in honor of his 50th wedding anniversary and Jim Burroughs for his 30 years of wedded bliss to Linda.

Due an unexpected emergency, the original speaker had to cancel. Lucky for us we had two Rotarians to fill!

Colin Smith's Red Badge Speech

Colin was born in Jamaica to an anthropologist father and a mother who was a teacher. In his younger years he spent time in Berkeley, Africa and Canada. He also spent time in school in Chicago and then attended Princeton where participated in one sport - riflery. Previous jobs included the fields of cab driving, telephone programming, banking and computing where he worked on a number of programming projects. This path even lead him to spend some time working in Spain. Colin was married for a time to an amazing woman who captured stunning photos of the Berlin Wall before it fell, Romania and the Gulf War. She also owned a company that sold juggling balls. They are now divorced but still friends. One thing he loves to do is flying - that's how he met Sam Bishop and ended up in Rotary.

Silicon Valley Bank Update by Angela DeBernardo

News had just broke that Silcon Valley Bank was closing, Angelo shared some knowlege about the closure.

In short, the bank sold a portfolio and realized the loss. They sold because they needed liquidity as many investors have smaller balances. The stock market did not like what they were doing and the stock plummeted. Then Goldman Sachs pulled out of a deal that was in process. The FDIC then shut down the bank. There is already talk of a new bank and people should be able to access their money as early as Monday. SV Bank had a solid balance sheet, Angelo believes customers should be fine and the situation will settle.
