Last Week’s Meeting

My tablemates for the day, Larry Brenner, Thornton Kontz, Angelo DiBernardo, Janet Krassow, and Ross Condit were dissecting flaws in the Spokes, while Peter Cook was busy checking in Rotarians, doing a family invocation and filling in as detective. He did a great job putting an attendance spin on the detective job. Linda, Sam and Michael entertained us with some great music. Jim Bargetto provided the raffle gift won by Frank Minuti. Larry Wallerstein introduced our speaker Dan Haifley, who provided highlights of the 50th anniversary of the SC Harbor. Dan and his wife wrote a book and most of the proceeds go to the O’Neill Odyssey program. To date 75000 low-income students have been served. The port district and tax started in 1950. The harbor was built from 1962-64. The Seawitch became the Crow’s Nest in 1969. The harbor is now self-sufficient. The 2011 Tsunami did $20,000,000 worth of damage to the harbor. Donna closed for Frank who was back in the office enjoying his mystery raffle prize.
