Last Week's Meeting

Last week the club was in mid-season form with all hands on deck for the meeting. Jim Miller or was it Joel Zenner? delivered the invocation for the meeting. It was very well done. We welcomed back Bruce Dunn from a recent hospital stay and recovery. The raffle was provided by Michelle Anderson and the winning ticket was #957016 held by Janet Krassow. The gift was a nice bottle of wine and a gift certificate to a restaurant.

Sharon Caiocca made an announcement about beach clean-up at Cowell's Beach on Monday mornings. The group starts at 8:00 am and they're always looking for a few more hands to share the work.

Sid Slatter served as detective and he did a "Random Thoughts" report on various themes. Of note is the fine levied on Dan Aldrich for having completed a Triathlon event in under 2 hours. Congratulations Dan!

Yvonne Clearwater from NASA served as our speaker for the day and she had an interesting slide program on the artistic side of design that goes into various space missions. She is an engaging and skilled speaker although the sound system gave us all a little trouble.
