TODAYS INVOCATION-Bob Davidson

Last Weeks Meeting
Bryan Largay, Conservation Director and Land Trust Director described how Santa Cruz County plans to protect and conserve large, undeveloped parcels of land for future enjoyment of generations to come. Many large tracts of land have already been set aside for undeveloped use. Private funds and public funds are in place to keep these beautiful tracts of land safe from uncontrolled development. Protecting the trees, plant life, and animal life from harm and eventual loss of habitat is the major role of the program. The area stretches from Watsonville slew to above Davenport and Swanton. These are precious areas and need to be protected but developed with trails and paths for gentle use. There is both public and private money to fund the proposed improvements. There would also be funds for some personnel to protect the area. It sounded like a good project to support. There were some questions about a rail road as part of the plan. The members asked some penetrating questions which Bryan handled very nicely. I think the club was in support of the project.

Last weeks drawing was presented by Bob Davidson. The lucky winner, Alan Dow, walked off with a nice bottle of wine and a generous certificate from Restaurante Avante. Thanks Bob for the generous gift.
Tom Honig presented the invocation. He quoted Nelson Mandella for some thoughtful reflections.
Colleen Harrison as detective, asked the members to comment on any meangingful club members in their lives. Dick Wilson reflected on having to deal with Santa Cruz City Councils over his tenure of City Manager. Tracy Bliss for her family members, all now decesed. Blaine Brokaw for Bud Rice an excellent mentor. Also Burt Reece for Norman Lezin. Donna Maurello for her mother who could only spend $5 on each of her 5 brothers and sisters. Donna really hoped for a new pair of ice skates. No way for just $5.

By some miricle, a new pair of shiny ice skates appeared under Donna’s tree on Christmas morning. Gary Reece for the other Republican.

Maurice Carrillo hosted his ItalianHigh Schoo Student, Alberto Bolgarelli from Modena Italy. The young man is carrying a full load of courses. The members urged him to save some time for fun.

Debbile McCarroll brought her friend, Dina Torres; who, is intertested in our Rotary Club. Thanks Debbie.
Everyone was in very good form and seemed to enjoy the meeting. I think the move to “The Back Nine” will be a boost to the club.
Jack Ritchey was presented with his PHF+5; and Jim Zenner received his PHS+8 pin. Congratulations to both of you.
