Fred Gawlick - Your Hometown Detective

Fred Gawlick served his very first time as Detective last week and he was out for big dollars and big volume. He had an official “Detective Uniform” which included the admonition “It’s Not Easy Being Fred”. So he got through the report; however I think it may come back to haunt him.

Harry Rasmussen

Secretary Ian sent out notice of Harry’s passing the other day. Harry was a very long standing and popular member of the club. He always had a very quick smile and laugh for everyone and was willing to help whenever asked. One thing for sure, Harry did not miss out on life. He was active up until the end and was blessed with good health.

Last Week’s Meeting

We didn’t have music last week because Don Munro is a bit under the weather. He’s rehabbing from an injury, and we were lost without his showmanship and leadership. John Huffman provided the invocation and Frank opened the meeting with usual precision.

Wally Dale provided the raffle gift which was won by - Blaine Brokaw. Everyone clapped as the well-deserved winner approached the dais to receive the gift. Wally gave a generous gift box of meats & cheeses along with a gift certificate to the Crows Nest.

During Fred’s detective report he called on Gerry Turgeon and Ross Condit to offer wine for bribery purposes and ended up gaining extra cash and some pretty nice vino. He gave candy out to all the folks who have helped out his avenue of service - Community Projects as well.

Janet Gluch introduced Sister Caritas Foster who delivered information about human trafficking both domestically and abroad. She identified a very large and serious problem. There are organizations out there trying to bring attention to the problems associated with human trafficking and she described how people are trapped by the criminals who perpetrate the crime. What seemed to elude the conversation was what efforts are being made to stop or prevent human trafficking.

Many questions were asked and it seemed the information/statistics were numerous and perplexing. It’s a tough subject and I’m glad Sister came along to talk about it. Don’t take your freedom for granted.

Thornton Kontz - Spokes Editor for January - February.

Okay, start clueing in on the new Spokes editor beginning January 1st. Thornton will take over and improve on the current “tired format”. I have no advice for Thornton because just showing up is 90% of the battle.

If you have announcements or if you are a committee head needing information in the Spokes, please remember Thornton’s the Man after 1/1.

Last week Tom Reese sent around the sign-up for ringing the Salvation Army Bell. If he asks, do it, it’s fun and for a really good cause. Sharon Caiocca will be with me ringing from 2-4 tomorrow at Safeway on Mission St., so come by and say hi.
