A Message from President Donna:

Dear Rotarians,

Thanks to so many of you for attending our State of the Club meeting. And especially thanks for all the incredible input, both by email and during the discussion. You've brought up many good points that we will consider for inclusion in our planning.

Remember to bring a prospective member sometime soon. You all know how great we are. Let's share that generous spirit with others who want to be part of our local and global mission.

Love to you all...
President Donna

Invocation: Matt Shelton brought an international flavor to our meeting. He shared with us many proverbs originating in foreign lands. There was a variety of advice for success such as "fall seven times, stand up eight" - a Japanese proverb. Also, "don't stand at the buffet line during the invocation if you must write about it later." - wise Rotarian proverb.

Attendance: Cynthia Killian brought her friend Mr. York who is from Australia. Mr. York has many talents. He is an Elvis impersonator and can do a Mel Gibson voice over very well.

Raffle: Today we were treated to a special prize. Instead of our usual, today's prize was cash. We all love cash especially free cash. The lucky winner was Frank Minuti. He promised to report it on his taxes. So we can sleep tonight knowing there is at least one honest person amongst us.

Announcements: Rotary Warriors game night is March 25. Come cheer for our president Donna. She is our only hope in defeating the dark forces of the other area presidents. There will be a showdown at halftime. Our presidents will battle at the center of the arena to prove once and for all, area supremacy.

Rusty Badge: Wally Dale was married in 1959, prior to that he was a Boy Scout leader and a volunteer firefighter. He sandwiched his family life in between perfecting his golf game, staying out of the gutter while bowling, and building his snow shoveling muscles. The last year while he was in New York it snowed 168 inches. That was all Wally needed to get that final chisel on his forearm muscles and gain the confidence he needed to take his muscles to the beach. After dominating the Jersey shore forearm scene, Wally decided to take his show to the big stage- the beaches of California. He arrived in the Bay Area in 1979. No one could resist his forearms, especially Lipton. Upon feasting their eyes on his perfection, they hired him to be the plant manager. The fame of his forearms, led him to distinguished roles such as the president of the Santa Cruz Chamber of Commerce and president of Rotary. In 1992 Wally decided to wear long sleeve shirts and retire his forearm days. Soon after his wife and he divorced. Overcome with sadness, Wally slipped back into the dark world of forearm bodybuilders. In those difficult days he leaned on two men with equally impressive forearms. These men formed a bond and Wally knew he had to repay them. In 2002 he gave the gift of Rotary to Ian Mckenzie. Then in 2004 he blessed Sid Slater with an invitation to join a strong civic organization. We thank Wally for keeping Rotary strong and providing two worthy men to carry the forearm torch.

Detective: Jan Derrecho raised an impressive $250 while quizzing us on our knowledge of classical music. Not one right answer was given. She picked on the smartest people in the club; luminaries such as John Burroughs, Dan Aldrich, Jim Bargetto, Galaham Zuanich, Cynthia Killian, and Russ Hobbs, each brainiac as impressive as the next. However, Jan got the better of all of their massive intellects. While we were demoralized by our lack of classical music knowledge, we were left with a couple of uplifting nuggets. Happy dollars were shared by many Rotarians. Bob Davidson was happy to be happy. Linda Burroughs was happy her daughter has a job. Janet Krassow was happy to introduce a very cute granddaughter. Jeanette Pagliero was happy her baby son made it to 19 years of age. Donna was happy that her niece delivered a baby girl.

Program: Today's program was about improving our club. We were tasked to brainstorm amongst other Rotarians at our table. Our table had Larry "the special" Fogelquist. After Larry gave us all the right answers, we continued chatting and eating our meals. Larry shared that he gets this impressive knowledge by consuming vegetables. He then asked me if I was going to finish my carrots. I replied that I was full. Larry reached over to my plate. Then he grabbed a carrot and consumed it rapidly. We all learned something about rotary and each other today. Might I suggest you protect your vegetables when you sit next to Larry.
