Today's Program

Jim Zenner & Jim Weisenstein

Guatamala and Their Need for Clean Water!

We all are aware of the important contributions that our club and other area and district clubs have made in executing international service projects to bring clean and safe water to areas of the world that need it. Our current International Project is a solar-operated water filtration system in Guatemala. Jim & Jim were just there to get the project rolling and the site prepared for receipt, installation, and start-up of the new piped-in water system. Today they will tell us about this amazing project and bring us up to date on its progress

Programs - Bob Bosso

Invocation - Laurel Jones

Detective - Jim Zenner

Last Week’s Meeting

The meeting was another successful affair, with President Jim back at the helm and ready to show who’s boss. The room was again filled to capacity, which means we may need to expand our seating arrangement soon. Let's hope that's the case.

The vivacious Debbie McCarroll checked in folks at the front table while Bob Ciapponi sold raffle tickets – or horse racing bets. Lunch was a fancy potato bar with all the fixings including chili (Erik Dybdahl is a chili hound!). Cookies and coffee topped it off. Another fine meal by our hosts at the Back Nine. Steve “Mr. Real Estate” Karon offered an invocation (from his lips to God’s ears...) and Michael “Stratocaster” Harrison provided music for the meeting.

Wally Dale combined Lipton Tea and Salvation Army Bell ringing in a rousing detective report.

Our speaker was Jeri Ross who spoke about her work as a life coach and how her career evolved. Most moving was her personal story about her father, who was found guilty of drug smuggling and sent to prison. He's still incarcerated, and Jeri and her sister visit him in prison. She was an excellent speaker with a great story.

New Club Member Proposed

Russ “Mr. Rotary” Hobbs has proposed Jill Stone for membership. Jill visited us last week as a visiting Rotarian from Michigan. (Is she escaping the snow?) If you would like to comment on Jill, please contact the club Secretary within 7 days.

Rotary Endowment Meeting Today!

Linda Burroughs has called a meeting of the Endowment Committee for today after our meeting. If you're on the committee, please show up at 1:30. (If you’re not, then don’t.)

Ian & The Back Nine (great name for a rock band) say: Park only in designated spots in the parking lot. We know where you live...

Donna Maurillo Says, “I’m baaaack!”

Thanks to Blaine for standing in as Spokes editor in while I was back east on an extended trip. In Washington, I told those folks in Congress to straighten up or else. So if you see any improvements in our federal government, you have me to thank for it.

I also helped my mother celebrate her 91st birthday. It took her so long to blow out the candles that we almost had to give her oxygen. (And we’d put only eight candles on the cake!) She said her biggest shock was realizing that she has a 70-year-old daughter.

(By the way, Gary called me every day. He knows which side his bread is buttered on.)

Mom with her cake

Club Birthdays

Speaking of birthdays, wish these folks a happy year. And may they live as long as Mom.
