Next Board Meeting

February 12 at Janet Gluch's

Our Speaker

Fred Keeley is the elected Treasurer of the County of Santa Cruz. He has held this position for nine years. Previously, he represented our community in the California State Assembly and on the Santa Cruz County Board of Supervisors. Fred is a recognized leader in state budget and tax policy, ocean resource management, and both traditional and renewable energy policy. In addition to being our County Treasurer, Fred teaches in the graduate school of public administration at San Jose State, and teaches at both CSU Monterey Bay and the Panetta Institute of Public Policy.

Last Week's Speaker

Maestro Daniel Steward played Bach on his girlfriend's violin for a rapt audience. It was good to see and hear a young, spirited conductor for our local symphony.

Next Week's Program

Jon Kaufman of H2Open Doors and Redwood City Rotary with an update on the project in Tacloban providing fresh water.
