Last Week
Was actually two weeks ago:
And notes were taken by the previous editor. It was a special day for Wally Walker, who won the raffle, was selected to be exempt for July, and his birthday was July 4 !!
Donna announced Rotarian of the year, shared by Keith McKenzie and Jim Zenner. Combined realized the need for water purification in Guatemala and set the plan into action, installed the water purification system with the help of our water warriors.

Donna's debunking began as a video of "This is your Life". Brad Howard says there is a stack of complaints on his desk, and the theme was "Get Rid of Donna."
Brad needed investigators/ witnesses to validate the claims that during Donnas presidency she was mischievous, and irreverent, Also there were claims of harassment, and false leadership.

Gary Reece elaborated on the harassment allegation, stating the Donna showed compassion and even-tempered professionalism, even in her misguided attempts to boost morale in a club of inept volunteers.

Linda Burroughs spent a few minutes reviewing her research on Donna's falsies. Linda believes they are real. Linda also mentioned Donna's theme of FUN, which stands for fat ugly numbskulls. On a positive note, she did mention that Donna used Rotary as a means to help her achieve her goal of improving the community and world.

Mary Rose Mackenzie took the stand to identify the mischievousness of Donna, and was chosen because of her enlightened viewpoint (it takes one to know one). These claims did stick in the examples given:

She places a call, and when you pick up she says, "sorry, I don't have time to talk, now."

Super glues quarters to the floor because she likes to laugh when people bend over.

She welcomes people to Narnia, if they find her in the wardrobes at IKEA.

Annie Asche showed us pictures as evidence of a not-so-innocent and absolutely irreverent Donna. Use your imagination, if you weren't lucky enough to be here. I'll give you a hint: one of the pictures involved Gary's tongue.

(Speaking of irreverence, this editor apologizes for an occasional lapse of reverence and for the rare occasion off-color humor in my writing)
Donna Renee "Donna's daughter" was a special guest, (she is also brave to speak to our club, and obviously poised with good nature) and took the occasion to enlighten us to Donna's role as mother. She would harass her to 'clean your room', showed false leadership, 'always strive for first place', was always up for a prank, as for reverence, as a catholic, knew all the rituals, All in all, did a good job raising two kids.

Jim Zenner shared some gifts to Donna, "50 Shades of Gray" (hair dye), a chocolate gavel, (for when she feels gavel envy), a screw-driver (to remove the license plate trim), and a parting gift of support, as she moves forward in her life (a jog bra). And in a parting serious note, from Martin Bernal, a city proclamation declaring June 26, 2015, Donna Maurillo Day, which did not come with a key to the city.

Jim Weisenstein presented Donna with a crystal 'trophy', then she pinned him, and he necklaced her. A happy ending.
Th, th, tha, that's all folks!
