Teresa Corwin – Executive Director

Santa Cruz Land Trust

Terry has enjoyed the Santa Cruz Mountains since Childhood. Because of her fondness for the area, she built a career locally as an executive with Plantronics and with other local technology start-ups. Her executive roles were in corporate finance. In 2005 Terry was named Executive Director of the Land Trust; which has protected 13,100 acres in Santa Cruz County and raised $46 million toward land protection efforts.

Last Week’s Meeting

I arrived around 11:45 or so last week and was greeted by Mario Luis at the attendance table. For those of you who don’t know, Mario and Debbie McCarroll will be taking attendance for this Rotary year. If you would like to assist or offer to fill in when needed, please let them know. Also, make sure and say hello; both Mario and Debbie are super friendly new members, so make new friends! Oh, he also checked me in with expert precision.

Jim opened the meeting and Colleen Harrison offered a very thoughtful invocation about following your bliss. Last Friday happened to be her final day of employment. She was beaming with retirement bliss!

Kevin Dempsey became winner #2 of the club drawing offered by Heather Stiles. The gift was a bottle of wine, a book and a certificate to Café Gabriella. Heather is the chair for raffle, so please see her about contributing this year.

The Detective was Linda Burroughs and her theme for the day was vacations & dates. Folks were fined for having funny or odd dates or vacation experiences. I had to make up mine because I was too nervous to remember anything about my first dates.

The speaker for the meeting was Frank Lima, and he was excellent. Frank is the “Great Morgani” and he gave us the history of how he started street performing. He played songs and told great stories. The crowd loved it; just an excellent speaker. Michael Harrison set up Frank, so good on you Michael! One thing I noticed was how his expression became blank while he played. It was like he became “one with the accordion.” Frank can play over 1,000 songs yet does not read music. Frank’s street music career has lasted 19 years and he’s got 150 costumes; so pretty much he’s got the outfit for any event. He’s played venues in San Francisco, including the U.S. Conference of Mayors.

Jim Closed the Meeting with the Quote “If Opportunity doesn’t knock, build a door.”

New Member Recruitment

Please remember the first two meetings you host a new prospective member, the club will pay for your guest’s lunch (oooooh).

The Sergeant At Arms for the year is Peter Dean; please see him for room setup or audio/visual needs.

Upcoming Programs

Dan Haifley – O’Neill Sea Odyssey	July 31
District Governor’s Visit	August 7
Eileen Hill – Santa Cruz Derby Girls	August 14

For August Sharon Caiocca will take notes and write the copy on the 7th & 14th. Gerry Turgeon will handle the Spokes for the 21st. Blaine will be back on the 28th to resume his mediocre production of this rag.
Be here on August 7th, the District Governor will be here and we owe Her (Susan Valenta) our attention and support.
