Last Week's Meeting

Last week I indicated the incorrect (and wrong) attendance "taker". Peter Cook is manning the attendance table. He was in fine form last week; checking boxes like a champ. The raffle was provided by Jeanette Pagliaro.

President Frank opened the meeting on time and away we went. Linda Burroughs was quick out the gate with piano music accompanied by Janene Adema and Cynthia Killian who were neck and neck in leading the welcome song. They were followed closely by Frank who announced the raffle drawing and at the wire it was Martin Bernal who won the raffle prize by a nose!

Wes Walker was a very angry yet productive Detective. He fined pretty much every member of the club for offenses and slights both real and imagined. I think Wes dropped about 10 lbs. of anger and his skin tone improved when it was all over. Some folks can be biting and funny at the same time; Wes definitely has that talent!

RI Convention in Lisbon

President Frank called on his old buddy Doug Deaver to join him in reporting on the RI convention. Doug is the new President of Capitola / Aptos and together they attended the affair which attracted about 25,000 Rotarians from around the world.

Frank and Terry had a great time at the convention. Doug took many photos of them enjoying wine and good food. Luckily Terry is very photogenic otherwise it would be hard to tell if the trip was any fun!

Lisbon is a seaside capital city. It is the western most capital in Europe and is also one of Europe's oldest cities. Known as a center of finance, education, trade and tourism, Lisbon is a popular tourist destination.

I think Lisbon boasts some pretty good wines; Frank and Doug can confirm this from personal experience.

Seen Around the Club

I think I look like a pirate. Ahoy mate!

Director Alert!

An important item was uncovered during the detective report. Just in case it got by anybody, the Junior Directors can and should vote on all questions of club governance.

New Leadership progress

Rotary International puts on a great show each year. Incoming presidents come from all over the world and visit fun exotic locals like Salt Lake City (Blaine 2007) or Los Angeles (Randy 2008) or Indianapolis (Bruce 1998). Frank went to Lisbon Portugal and today we'll hear all about it.
