Programs - Elizabeth Clifton

Invocation - Ross Condit

Detective - Tom Parker

Menu: Next week we will have: Salads ~ Coleslaw and Salad Bar Entrée ~ Back Nine Ribs and Scallop Potatoes Dessert ~ Chocolate Mousse

Raffle: John Huffman won the raffle. It was a fine bottle of merlot from Equinox and a gift certificate to a fine restaurant. This gift was donated by Peter Cook.

Board of Directors Meeting: July 8 at 5:30pm. The next meeting of the Board of Directors will be hosted by Sid Slatter at 7099 Glen Haven Rd Soquel (Hunter Hill Winery). Directors and guests wishing to attend are requested to contact the Secretary at 3 4 5 - 5 1 8 2 or email ian@santacruzrotary.com

Due to your editor's absence this last meeting, we relied on the observations of three guest reporters. Our volunteers were Jim Bargetto, Tom Foster, and Peter Cook. What follows is an interview as they saw the meeting.

What did you find most notable about the meeting?

Jim: Peter Dean showed up early. Aleene Althouse won the exempt drawing for June. Red badge Traci Bliss lost her red badge. John Huffman was recognized for building a wall but he had no recollection of building it.

Tom: Everyone clapped for the detective. Larry Wallerstein has a really big knife. Jim Weisenstein forgot about the raffle. The head table looked really happy. The dessert was really good, I had two.

Peter: The invocation (Peter delivered it himself). It was "Don't fly higher than you are willing to fall." I was flying so high from presenting that I don't remember anything else.

Who was the best dressed?

Jim: It's hard to say. If I had been wearing my new Italian shoes it would be me. On a side note to my fans (Burt Reese), I will be wearing them in two weeks. Otherwise Russ Hobbs was wearing a royal blue Rotary golf shirt. Tom Foster looked handsome in a blue blazer accessorized with a gorgeous past presidents pin. John Huffman looked sporty in his red sweater. Tom Canfield looked delicious in his baby blue Oxford shirt.

Tom: Jim Weisenstein always looks better than everyone else.

Peter: Burt Reese because he was wearing slacks.

Tell us about the detective report.

Jim: Detective Tom Foster fined Elizabeth Clifton for raising $28500 in sponsorships for the event. By far the most ever received. Tom Canfield was happy that his daughter Corin graduated from Santa Catalina. She will be attending the University of Oregon the same school as her grandfather Charlie Canfield.

Tom: The detective report was about nothing. It had no theme. I tried to prep twenty minutes in advance but my pen broke. Larry Wallerstein fixed it with a 12 inch folding knife

Peter: Tom was unprepared; he worked on it at the table before his turn to present. I think he kind of enjoys the chaos of being unprepared. It seems that he is just as surprised as us to hear what he will say next. Otherwise, he fined me for para gliding over the Dream Inn.

What did you think about the program?

Jim: Scott Berry of Joby Aviation presented. Joby's objective is to change the way people move. They want to use air flight to transform human mobility. He showed us a fascinating video of a prototype they are developing to transport four passengers at a time. The vehicle is all electric. Joby employs 200 people with 45 in Bonny Doon.

Tom: I love the program's we put on. We have had an amazing lineup this year. This was no different. I was not aware of this technology. It is a vibrant venture in our county.

Peter: Joby wants to have an Uber type of service of these vehicles by 2020. They will have piloted and pilotless options. It's really neat.
