Today's Program

Chris Bley - InspecTools

Chris Bley is a native of California, has resided in Santa Cruz since 1984 and is a graduate of UC Santa Cruz in Biology. He has been active in the growing wind energy industry for the past 17 years. Through his rock climbing interests he founded Rope Partner in 2001. In 2013, Chris transitioned away from wind energy service and into renewable energy inspection technologies after founding InspecTools.

Programs - Elizabeth Clifton

Invocation - Elizabeth Clifton

Detective - Laurel Jones

Due to your editor's absence this last meeting, we relied on Donna Maurillo's brilliance in writing this week's Spokes.

Menu: Next week's menu: Salads ~ Apple Feta and Salad Bar Entrée ~ Roasted Whole Chicken and Wild Rice Dessert ~ Lemon Bars and Whole Fruit

Raffle: Wes Walker donated the door prize - a basket of goodies and passes from the Boardwalk. How easy was that? Chaz Eldridge won it and was excited to practice his putting on the miniature golf course.

Invocation: Bruce Dunn gave the invocation - something about Mother Theresa telling everyone to smile because when you smile, the world smiles back.

Announcements: We held a moment of silence to honor the passing of longtime Rotarian and past president John Mahaney. Donations in his memory can be made to the Santa Cruz Rotary Community Fund.

John Huffman was recognized for representing our club at the re-dedication of the newly restored mural near Mission Santa Cruz. It was originally a Club project many years ago.

Larry Fogelquist was recognized for leading the team that's building our Club's new parklet on the San Lorenzo River. All club members are welcome to join the work team on Saturday, June 25, from 10am to 2pm to pull weeds and prepare the plot for planting. Bring work gloves, sunblock, and water. Come for the entire time, or just for an hour.

Meeting: Everyone sang "God Bless America" in their usual off-key tone, so nobody qualified for America's Got Talent. We had ribs for lunch. Nobody claimed that theirs were missing, so we assume they came from a farm animal. Elizabeth Clifton won the prize (again) for having the greatest number of guests. She brought four. Peter Huemer came in second with three guests, but they all were family members. Annie Asche brought one, who is a prospective member.

Detective: Blaine Brokaw was detective and collected a boatload of money. Hundreds of Happy Dollars came from Rotarians whose young family members have just graduated from high school or college. They included Sid Slatter, Blaine, Keith McKenzie, Tom Rees, and others. Chaz Eldridge donated another $100 because the Sharks won.

Annie Asche donated because she doesn't have to haul voting booths again until November. She also admitted to trying to stuff the ballot boxes in favor of Measure Q. Gary Reece gave "unhappy dollars" because his man Bernie Sanders didn't make it past the primaries.

In other Detective activity, Bruce Dunn showed off Sam Bishop's six-inch comb. And a lot of people proved that they couldn't answer simple sports factoids, although Sam said he knew what a "double hook-up" was. We also learned that Ian Mackenzie's phone ring tone is not "Candyman." In fact, it's the theme from "Sons of Anarchy."

Program: Our speaker was Diana Reyes Baughman, although her PowerPoint said her name was Diane Cox Reyes. So pick your favorite. As a representative of Chevron, she was listed as one of the most influential Latinas in the US. She told us that 6,000 products contain petroleum-based ingredients. And we don't know whether to be happy or sad that gas prices are low. It means that the price of a barrel of crude oil is very low because Iraq and Arabia have flooded the market. But it also means the refineries will reduce production because it isn't profitable enough.

She also said there isn't much financial incentive for renewable energy at this point, so it won't be a major part of our energy in the foreseeable future. But we will have 9 billion people in the world by 2035, so fossil fuels will be about 65% of energy consumption at that time. The biggest demand for gasoline in the US was in 2007, but demand is growing in Asia because more people are buying cars. So it looks like Chevron will be in business for a long time.
