Todays Program

Chris Murphy

President, Santa Cruz Warriors

Chris is in his first season as president of our beloved Santa Cruz Warriors. In his new role, he oversees all business operational aspects of the Warriors D-League franchise. He comes to Santa Cruz after devoting ten years with the Golden State Warriors, where he most recently served for five years as senior director of the Warriors’ group sales department. Chris began his career with the Warriors in 2005 as an account executive. Because we’ll have our Rotary Night at the Warriors on Sunday, today’s presentation will be quite timely.

Programs - Bob Bosso

Invocation - Annie Asche

Detective - Joel Miller

Last Week’s Speaker

UCSC Chancellor George Blumenthal updated our group on the status and the value of the local campus. For instance, UCSC generates $1.3 billion in economic activity for Santa Cruz County. He noted that more than one-half the students are housed on campus, that one-half of bus riders are from UCSC, that the campus has reduced water use by 27%, that food waste has been cut by 100 tons per year, and that all campuses will be carbon neutral by 2025.

Not only does UCSC have the most beautiful campus on Earth, but their applicants are among the smartest from their high schools.

Annie Is Honored

Last Friday was Annie “Tall Drink of Water” Asche’s (mumble) birthday. So the club serenaded her with the usual celebratory song, and Ian “Mr Sweets” Mackenzie provided a cache of chocolate bars with a wrapper honoring the special event.

And then She Did a Striptease

To show what to wear for the upcoming Duck Dynasty fundraiser, Annie did a striptease. Sort of. Wearing a few layers of clothing, she peeled them off in each successive move, giving ideas for costuming.

Lots of hoots and whistles, of course. What else can you expect from this group?

The event is on Saturday evening, April 23, at Holy Cross Hall. Dinner! Auctions! Wine! Duck calls! Mayhem! Watch your mail for the invitations.

Our New Banner...

Take a good look at our new club banner. Isn’t it just great?? This is what we will use at trade shows (do we go to trade shows?), the District Conference, our social events, the entryway to The Back Nine, and any other place where we want people to know all about us. Thanks to all our members who were available for the photo shoot and who will represent us from now on. We actually look like we know what we’re doing, don’t we? Thanks to our bean counters for finding a really good deal on the printing costs.

Go Warriors!!!!

We’ll see you Sunday night at the Warriors game, which tips off at 6pm. We’ll be sitting together. Your editor is happy to say that her sister, brother-in-law, and niece will be in town to join us. Yes, they came just for the game! Sort of.

Menu for Next Week

Michele has sent us the menu for next Friday. It’s fish and chips with cole slaw, a salad bar, and chocolate chip cookies with ice cream.

If You Have Menu Issues...

Note that if you have issues with the menus, or if you have special dietary needs, please do not go to the restaurant staff. They cannot do anything. Instead, talk with Blaine Brokaw, who is in charge. It’s difficult to please everyone’s preferences, but we are doing our best to accommodate all 70+ of our attendees.

PETS Was the Best Ever!

The President-Elect Training Seminar (PETS) in San Jose last week was the best ever. Your newsletter editor attended as incoming Assistant District Governor, with President-Elect Sid Slatter and all the other incoming presidents from Seattle to Maui. It was three days of education, discussion, idea exchanges, and rah-rah for Rotary International.

From all accounts (including mine), Sid will make a great new president. We also have a talented slate of presidents for our other Area 7 clubs. Woot woot!!!
