A Message from President Donna:
Dear Rotarians,

After our flight was delayed for 24 hours, Annie Asche, Al Smith, Gary Reece, and I finally made it to Costa Rica. John and Linda Burroughs were smarter and left a day ahead, so they didn't encounter any problems. Next time, I'm going to walk. I've had enough of airline problems lately.

Help support our president-elect Jim Weisenstein by offering to be on the fundraising event committee. It's a fun group, and The Magic of Rotary on Saturday, April 25, will be a crowd pleaser. If you have good auction items to donate, or if you want to sponsor, Jim is eager to hear from you.

Thanks for your generosity...
President Donna

Invocation: Reverend Bob Bosso asked us to bow our heads. We happily complied. He then led us in prayer. We concluded with a resounding "amen." It was a fitting gesture for our Lenten season.

Meeting: Today we were greeted with protest. A select group of Rotarians are clearly unimpressed with the talk and decision to raise dues. Upon observing their attire one could clearly see that they needed to direct all of their funds towards a decent wardrobe

Attendance: Today we were greeted with protest. A select group of Rotarians are clearly unimpressed with the talk and decision to raise dues. Upon observing their attire one could clearly see that they needed to direct all of their funds towards a decent wardrobe.

Raffle: After freshly acquiring property in Tennessee, our own Ross Condit acquired the raffle prize. He took home a menagerie of wines selected by Michael Harrison. Ross will be sharing his acquisitions with his close friends and family.

Detective: Russ Hobbs was our detective. It was also his birthday. He requested that some Rotarians share stories of their birthdays. We were treated to several incredible stories. We were taken on trips down memory lane. We went all around the world. We landed in the Swiss Alps. Headed to a liquor store and drank with border guards. It was great to be present.

Program: Jim Turner spoke for our program. He is from the California Resiliency Alliance. He too took us down a trip through memory lane. However, this trip was a bit more nightmarish. He recounted the earthquake that hit Santa Cruz many years ago. Jim offered this story to tie in his organizations mission to join private sector assets with emergency response services in disaster relief. Many private assets such as cranes, hoes, and tractors can be maneuvered to be of service during an emergency situation. Those of us with access to these types of assets are implored to join him in this noble effort.
