Todays Program

Mayor Don Lane

Don Graduated from UCSC in 1978 and immediately entered the world of business. Don was a partner in the Saturn Café for 16 years and Blaine Brokaw was his insurance agent (yay). Anyway, Don is now the Mayor of Santa Cruz and he’s here to give us a “State of the City” address. Welcome Mayor Don!

Last Week’s Meeting

Last week was the last Friday of September and we chose a new person to be exempt for the month of October. I know who the exempt person is. Anyway, I arrived and Mario greeted me warmly and checked me in like a seasoned pro. Fred Gawlick sold me a raffle ticket even though he was not on the schedule. I of course did not win the prize. Allan Dow offered an invocation and we were off & running. Carol Lezin did win the prize and she received Trout Gulch wine and a gift certificate to a restaurant (did not get the name) in Felton.

We had the pleasure of introducing a new member, Kris Munro. Kris is the Superintendent of Santa Cruz City Schools and she now is our newest “Red Badge”.

Kris was proposed and sponsored by Laurel Jones. Congratulations to Kris and welcome aboard!

Drew Miller served as the detective and requested advice from the club on how to manage his daughter Phoebe’s wedding. I’m not sure he got great advice because he ended up collecting a lot of fines.

Our speaker was Michael Harrison and the Vocational Scholarship program. The young people were great, Michael was great; it was all great. The club funded 24 Scholarships worth $18,000 to students ranging in age from 17 to 42 years of age within a selection of 21 areas of vocational study. Each of the students said a few words and thanked the club. I picked up on 5 recurring words, “dreams” “reality” “gift” “college” and of course “thanks”. There are few programs that can match young people being assisted by Rotary and expressing their thanks for recognition for their hard work in school. For those of you who missed it, well you know...you missed it.

I can’t wait for the program, oh boy!

Club Barbecue October 9 – Next Friday!
Santa Cruz Beach Boardwalk

Wes Walker and Sid Slatter are heading up plans for another awesome club Barbecue at the Boardwalk. Tickets are $30 per person. This is an annual event. With the great weather we’re having, it should again be a huge success! Go Team!

Let me show you my new iwatch, it’s right over here in the lounge.
