Last Week’s Meeting

We had another excellent meeting on October 2. I arrived as usual and Debbie checked me in. Carol Lezin sold me yet again another losing raffle ticket. I gave half my tickets to my guest Scott Galloway and he didn’t win either, so... Jim banged the gavel on time and Michael Sam and Hank played God Bless America. Then Carol Lezin ran over from the raffle ticket table and delivered an excellent invocation with a quote from Ralph Waldo Emerson. That’s him over on the left.

Okay, so then we had the raffle and Jim Weisenstein won the prize; however he gave the prize as a gift to Tom Parker who came to Rotary even though he’d suffered a pretty rough fall injury. Tom thought it was worth the pain.

Then, Peter Prindle did an excellent detective report that featured Paul Harris Fellowship awards, George Harrison, Ringo Star and a whole bunch of other excellent stuff. He was great.

Our speaker was Mayor Don Lane. He gave a very well prepared talk on issues of the City. It had a title “A City with Two Tales.” He described plusses, minuses, challenges and solutions in Santa Cruz when they exist in the same place at the same time.

And then when I was in college I joined a fraternity Eta Lotta Fries.

Club Barbecue A Big Success!
Wes Walker and Sid Slatter and their team did a great job on the Barbecue. A fun time was had by all.

Don’t make me come over there and beat you with my cane!
