Last Week’s Meeting

I arrived fresh from my vacation last week and was greeted by Bryan Williams. It was great seeing Bryan, he’s working hard in Law school so we don’t get to see him as often as we’d like. Debbie checked me in like a seasoned pro and Matt Shelton sold me my raffle tickets.

President Jim opened the meeting and we sang God Bless America. Bob Ciapponi offered a well prepared very fast and effective invocation which was appreciated by the club. Jan Derecho led us in the welcome song. Matt Shelton provided the raffle gift which was won by Steve Karon. Steve was so moved by Bob's invocation, he gave the raffle gift to him. The gift included gift certificates to Discretion Brewing and also Café Cruz.

Tom Foster served as the Detective and was just great. He told me afterward how sometimes the club provides as much or more material and energy than he brings to the detective report himself. Of note, Fred Gawlick was a wealth of knowledge during the report. Tom kept the crowd laughing and the money flowing!

The speakers for the meeting were our own Mario Luis, Debbie McCarroll and Laurel Jones. These were Red Badge talks and they were just terrific. They were interesting, enlightening and also amusing. I was particularly keen on Mario’s interest if firefighting. He also likes to surf fish (Sam Bishop take note). Both Debbie and Laurel love of dogs and Debbie has even shown (and won) her boxers at the Westminster Kennel Club competition. Again and again our own members provide the most fun, interesting and enlightening programs. All were excellent.

Club Social at Derby Girls

Saturday we were special guests of the Boardwalk Derby Girls for a fun evening of roller skate...skating (see above). Anyway it was a game with hard hits and athletic skating. Peter Cook arranged special seating for us and Eileen Hill was our special host for the evening. One fun thing was, for a dollar you could have the announcer deliver a message over the loud speakers. We had some really great messages; maybe you’ll hear about some today.

We really owe a special thanks to Peter Cook. He’s really done a great job coming up with clever and fun outings.

Rotary Board Meets the 2nd Wednesday of Each Month

Members who would like to attend as a make-up or just to see what goes on are invited, just let Ian know you’d like to come along and he’ll give you the particulars.

Food Committee

The club has need of a food committee to help plan meals for the club and communicate feedback (feed-back ha ha) to the caterer. If you would like to be part of the committee, please see Blaine Brokaw.
