Editor's Poem

I'm sorry to say, that this is the last issue of the spokes, with Erik Dybdahl as editor. Please welcome our new editor, Cristian Gonzalez, as he bravely enters the realm of composing letters within an audience of savvy readers and encouraging reviews.

Thank you for enduring my errors of omission, and complete gap in the weekly delivery. I know Sid's last meeting was very distracting, and may have prevented you from reading Spokes that day, so I will assume that is why I didn't receive more complements on my poem d' jour.

Last Week's Program

Sid Slatter's debunking was a sincere event, laced with humor, loaded with good music, and really a very delightful event. Sid's table included his parents, Van and Christine, brother, Matt, girlfriend, Meredith, and niece from the office, Alex, and Shakira Mitchell.

The end of the RAIN, REIN, or REIGN of Slatter was loud and happy. Sid acknowledged and thanked his 'staff', the senior directors, Michael Harrison, Elizabeth Clifton, Richard Beach and Bob Bosso, the junior directors, Peter Cook, Linda Burroughs, Kim Adamson and Tom Parker, sergeant of Arms, Stoney Brook and Peter Dean, Chief Detective, Wes Walker, and announced his selection for Rotarian of the Year, Elizabeth Clifton.

Michael Harrison, Tom Foster and Dave Dreyfus on drums produced a 'Big Bad Sid' melody.

Sid's presidential project for the year, the Young Writers Program, supported by our club, had an increased outreach of 600% this past year.

Martin Bernal read the city declaration of Sid Slatter Day, June 23, 2017, whereas.... whereas.....

Linda Burroughs and companions put together a video slide show, not without the loving help of Ian Mackenzie.

The closing song by Colleen and Michael Harrison, "To Sid, with Love" was a tear jerker finale,

"...The time has come, for the Reign of Slatter to end, and as you leave, you know that we leave as best friends...."
