Last Week's Highlights

Invocation: Blaine Brokaw reminded us to do our best and that our best would not be the same each and every day.

Raffle Winner: Sharon Caiocca came away with a fine bottle of wine and a very generous gift certificate courtesy of Mr. Stephen Karon.

Detective Report: Peter Cook admired the overall coolness of the club. He was hearty in his approbation and lavish in his praise. He asked members of the club, "Why do I wish I was as cool as you?" The elephant in the room: Peter was cooler than cool – he was ice cold! A few of the highlights:

Aileen "Ace" Althouse thought for sure Peter was as cool as him, especially since he donned a stylish State Farm® ball cap. But Peter really admired Ace for sponsoring a great new member in Masi Bayless.

Tom Foster was left speechless for an ever-so-brief moment. Peter recognized Tom for his quick wit and his improv skills.

Bob Bosso is cool because he's a 1 in million type of attorney... A likable one!

Last Week's Program: Jewel Theatre

Julie James visited the club and delivered a fantastic presentation about the Jewel Theatre, their venue, the Colligan theatre at the Tannery Arts Center, and their upcoming performance of All My Sons, by playwright Andrew Miller.

It was great to hear an impassioned presentation by one of our local talents about a fantastic, local company committed to the arts.
