Last Week's (10/20/17) Highlights

Invocation: Sharon Caiocca led the club in a beautiful prayer, giving thanks for our blessings.

Detective: Blaine Brokaw gave a very unique detective report about his recent trip to Washington, D.C. Blaine shared some great knowledge with the club about our nation's capital's most famous monuments, and he returned home with a revitalized sense of patriotism and pride in our country.

Raffle Winner: Jim Courtright walked away the lucky winner of a picnic basket, bottle of wine and gift certificate. Thank you, Rich Beach!

Last Week's (10/20/2017) Program: Central Coast Veterans Cemetery Foundation

Richard Garza and Candace Ingram shared some great insights about the plan for the Central Coast Veterans Cemetery before handing over the microphone to a few fine gentlemen from The American Legion Riders.

The riders, who were former military veterans, shared the incredible story of their cross-country ride to raise awareness about the need for the continued support of the Central Coast Veterans Cemetery.

On the ride, they carried our nation's flag that would fly over Arlington National Cemetery before being transported back to the Central Coast Veterans Cemetery. They shared many heartwarming stories about our nation's citizens, their enthusiasm for the cemetery, and their generosity. Our club gave the riders a well-deserved standing ovation for their efforts.
