Today's Program

Santa Cruz Police Chief

Andy Mills

Chief Andy Mills came to the Santa Cruz Police Department in 2017.

“Andy brings a wealth of experience currently serving as Chief of Eureka, California as well as holding positions of police officer, sergeant, lieutenant, commander, and captain in the San Diego Police Department. Andy has proved to be an innovator, an advocate for civil rights, a strategic thinker, as well as inclusive and forward-thinking Police leader. Andy went through an extensive review and vetting process that included a nationwide search and community process, and I am confident that he will build upon the already strong department in the coming months and years.”

– Martin Bernal, Santa Cruz City Manager

Last Week's Highlights

Invocation: John Burroughs shared some thoughts and prayers about tax reform. Suffice to say, Mr. Burroughs isn't feeling the Bern! It was great to hear John's perspective. Well done.

Raffle Winner: Angelo DeBernardo came away with quite the haul! Thank you, Donna Maurillo!

Grand Donor – Russ Hobbs: Russ Hobbs was honored as a Grand Donor.

Detective: Stoney Brook and made all of us feel better with his humor and wit, and we're very glad he's okay. He asked the club about a few of their favorite things...

Last Week's Program: Red Badge - Kieran Shah

Kieran gave a fantastic presentation about his life and what brought him to Santa Cruz and our Rotary Club.

Kieran was born and raised as part of an inter-racial family in the United Kingdom. His father is Indian and his mother white. He came to the United States and worked on the East Coast for several years in the financial sector as a CFP®.

He was in New York during September 11th and experienced horrible challenges of being racially profiled trying to go to work. Frustrated, he made his way West to Las Vegas. He took a position at a not-for-profit that had to close its doors, and this sparked his passion for the business side of not-for-profits.

Kieran later took positions with Hospice after hearing about the positive impact Hospice has on people's lives. He currently serves as the Chief Strategy Officer for Hospice of Santa Cruz County. He is engaged to be married to Coriander Stasi
