Save the Dates

12/3 – Annual Ugly Christmas Sweater Party. Details TBA. I think it's safe to put up the Christmas lights now that Halloween is over!

5/17-19/2019 – District Conference in Alameda at the USS Hornet Museum. Don't forget to mark your calendars!

Last Week's Highlights

Invocation: Past President Annie Asche was back after a busy time with the elections. She reminded us all of the difficult times for many folks in California who are experiencing disruption in their lives with the wildfires.

Raffle Winner: Wally Walker strikes again! For the second time this quarter the President's father won the door prize. It was an extensive prize filled with wine, a gift certificate and goodies from Allstate, I mean State Farm. Ace, please forgive me (and Wally) for screwing that up. If only there was a picture of Wally wearing those gloves.

Detective Report: Thomas De la Castillo was on the mic to raise money for a good cause. That good cause was of course, Rotary. It was perfectly timed and also a great history lesson on American presidents. Jimmy B missed out because I heard he loves a good trivia detective report.

Misc: It was an honor for us to see what a true steward of the community is like. Mary Blanchard was given a non-Rotarian honorary Paul Harris Fellowship for her many contributions to Santa Cruz County. A few of the many organizations she has given her time to include the MAH, Santa Cruz Symphony, Housing Resource Center and CASA. This wasn't the first time Mary and her husband, Harry, have been honored. The MAH named the Mary and Harry Blanchard Sculpture Garden after them for their great service.

Last Week's Program: Brass over Bridges

Dorothy Wise kicked off the presentation giving a quick background on how the Symphony is involved in the community especially with local elementary school students in 4th and 5th grade. She then handed it over to the Brass over Bridges Quintet who gave a short performance. This was definitely worth the price of admission!

It was mentioned that they were performing the National Anthem at the SC Warriors game. You can check that out on YouTube by searching "Santa Cruz Symphony / Brass Over Bridges players perform National Anthem."
