Today's Program

Kim Steinhardt

The Edge, the Californai Coastal Ecosystem

Kim Steinhardt is an environmental writer and marine wildlife photographer who spins a good yarn about his passion for the California Coast and its ecosystem. He's a photo contributor to National Geographic and his work has appeared in many books, including his own such as the recently published, The Edge which was co-authored with coastal scientist Dr. Gary Griggs. It's no surprise that Kim is an ardent advocate for ocean protection and serves on the board of the Marine Discovery Center at UCSC.

November 16 Highlights

Invocation: It was an emotional and heartfelt speech given by Steve in which he asked Rotarians to step up and help the Rotary Club of Paradise. As of 11/28 the GoFundMe campaign has raised $116k of their $250k goal. #ParadiseStrong Raffle Winner: No one sweater could have won the door prize. Jeannette was the lucky winner and took home a lovely bottle of wine and a gift card.

Detective Report: The traditional turkey showed up to give her annual detective report. It was flocking hilarious!

Misc: In case you missed it, Bob Bosso was announced as the president-elect and will succeed Ross Condit. The junior directors serving under him were also announced and include: Masi Bayless, Michele Costa, Cristian Gonzalez and Gary Reece.

November 16 Program: Port of Santa Cruz

Senior Deputy Harbormaster Don Kinnamon was the guest speaker and gave us some good history on the Port of Santa Cruz, as well as some insight into the role of the Santa Cruz Port Commission. Construction on the south harbor began in 1962 and was completed in 1964 with 360 slips. Given the success of the south harbor, an additional 455 slips were added in 1973. The Port Commission meets every fourth Tuesday of the month at 7pm at 365A Lake Avenue. These meetings are open to the public. Check out santacruzharbor.org for more information.
