January 18th Meeting Recap

INVOCATION: Cristian Gonzalez cited Laurence J. Peter's quote on the iRS web site: "Few of us ever test our powers of deduction, except when filling out an income tax form."

CLUB DRAWING: First-time winner Chris Murphy went home with a bottle of Chardonnay and a gift certificate to the Hindquarter restaurant, courtesy of Bob Davidson. In late-breaking news it was disclosed that Janet Krassow's raffle prize won last week by Dwight Lowery included a gift certificate for Stagnaro's.

DETECTIVE REPORT: There was apparently a security breach that revealed Galaham Zuanich to be the detective for this week's meeting because almost none of his intended victims showed up for the meeting.

However he valiantly attempted to collect fines based on 2018 data. For example, John Burroughs was fined for losing his deal with Linda in which he vowed to work less but she made him (house)work more. Bob Bosso, Dick Wilson, Jack Ritchie and others were fined for being married 50 years in 2018.

Sam Bishop

Lord of the Flies Fisherman

Nobody in the club was surprised to learn that member and Master Fly Fisherman Sam Bishop went to the remotest reaches of East Asia to go fishing in Mongolia.

"Roads don't really exist," said Sam who reported that people just drove to wherever they needed to go and added, "Neither do fences."

38" Tieman Trout

And it was cold. "Every night was below freezing," reported Sam, adding that capital city Ulaanbaatar is the coldest in the world, although it does seem to have roads and fences as well as high rise buildings.

Amur Trout

But the point of the trip was to fish, not to drive and tour, and Sam's expedition had a lot of success, catching 5 species including a sizable (38") example of the rare Taimen mega-trout, and four other fish found only in the region including an Amur Trout, a Flathead Asp, an Amur Pike, and a Lenok.

The beer and vodka were great, said Sam, who noted that they were always cold, but added, "I've had enough vodka for a while."
