Today's Program

Matt Wetstein

The New Leadership at Cabrillo College

Our local community college is benefitting from Matt Wetstein's years of experience as a college administrator and author of books on judicial practice. He is already deeply involved in the affairs of Santa Cruz County after only a year on the job.

Programs - Kris Munro

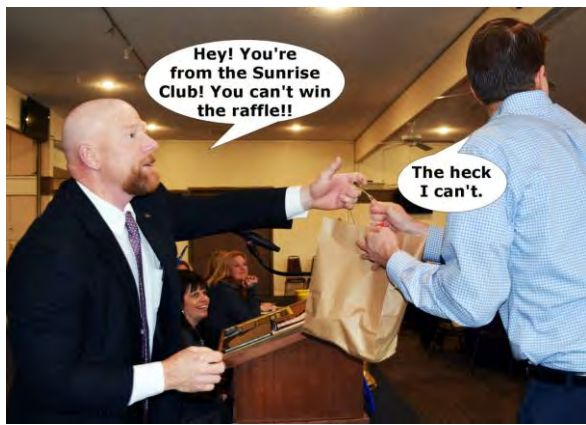

Invocation - Stoney Brook

Detective - Mike Allard

February 15th Meeting Recap

INVOCATION: Donna Maurillo extended the concept of Valentine's Day to include loving our neighbors and asked everyone to shake hands with or hug the Rotarian sitting in the next chair. Unfortunately, the club photographer was not available to take pictures of the loving result.

CLUB DRAWING: Visiting Sunrise Club Member Tim Andell won a gift bag that Sam Bishop configured to include a bottle of (hard?) cider and a certificate for dinner at a restaurant of his choice. Don't our local members win this thing anymore?

DETECTIVE REPORT:

Detective Masi Bayless got spouses to rat out their partners and then asked attending Rotarians to guess what their answers were to important questions. For example, John Burroughs correctly guessed that Linda's favorite meat substitute is the Impossible Burger while Linda correctly guessed that John's Spirit Animal is a dead dog.

In other news, Tom Canfield correctly guessed that John Huffman broke up with Karen's best friend to make her his wife, while Jim Courtwright was right that Arthur Schwartz got a divorce to attract wife Lorie.

Santa Cruz Derby Girls Make Waves

Santa Cruz Derby Girls Sharon D. Pain, Jenny Lawless, Shamrock N. Roller, and Queen Litigious explained the ins and outs and ups and downs of championship skating in the Flat Track Derby Association league.

Unlike the old days of sloped oval roller derbies, it's a serious sport with serious rules that these participants take very seriously. They not only skate in tourneys, including international ones, they manage the team as volunteers and volunteer in the community, giving back by donating to local causes, doing beach cleanup, and helping with fundraising for other organizations. Last year the Derby Girls donated over $30,000 to local causes.

The championship team is the Boardwalk Bombshells, but there are other teams in the organization including the Santa Cruz Derby Groms, a young women's league that serves both as a training ground and a farm team for the Bombshells.

Last year the Bombshells played in a championship tournament in Spain, won a world championship, and in May of this year will host the Boardwalk Empire Tournament featuring teams from around the world.

The 2019 season starts in March and on June 29th there will be a Rotary Rumble! Stay tuned for more details.
