March 29th Meeting Recap

OPENING: Sam Bishop and Michael Harrison played God Bless America and Jan Derecho offered an invocation for the meeting.

Guests were introduced with one distinguished guest in the form of Ramesh Hariharan, District Governor Elect CLUB DRAWING: Marv Jensen won the raffle drawing which was donated by Jim Weisenstein, even though Tom Canfield tried to take credit. The gift included McKenzie's Chocolates as well as a Starbucks Gift Card.

SPEECH CONTEST: Terry Cole, who won our club contest went on to win the area contest and is also selected for the District Speech contest. You go, Terry Cole!

DETECTIVE REPORT: Richard Beach took us on a visual tour of downtown Santa Cruz and quizzed us on the names and locations he cited in his report. Many of the landmarks were well known and the report went off without any disagreement. Richard also included Happy dollars in his report which raised significant cash owing to ageing Rotarians celebrating Anniversaries and Birthdays.

Program: Aleene Althouse and Darlene De Lacerna led the program, introducing Avalon Althouse and Giulio Caruso. Both enjoyed life changing trips abroad through Rotary Youth Exchange. Avalon was our representative outbound to Brussels Belgium. Through pictures, Avalon showed us how fun exchange can be. She went to museums, skiing, amusement parks, to the beach and much more. Avalon arrived in Belgium as a nearly total English speaker and came home with near fluency in French. Bien joué, Avalon!

Giulio arrived in Santa Cruz from Sardinia, Italy with a dream to become an international surfing star! As a member of the Italian National Surfing Team (Yeah, that's a thing) Giulio even got to represent Italy in a surfing contest here in California. He also surfed the legendary Maverick's break in Half Moon Bay. Giulio especially likes school classes in woodworking and benefits from many friends who are willing to give him rides to places he wants to visit. He really struck me as the kind of guy who enjoys life and appreciates friends worldwide.
