April 12th Meeting Recap

OPENING: First, a special thanks to John Brokaw for taking the Spokes notes for me while I drank wine in Paso Robles. The opening went well with Kacey Hinchman offering the thought for the day.

May 4th Rotary Derby Fundraiser

Ross & Susan Condit put on an awesome social fundraising event at their home last Saturday. The assembled crowd dressed like a bunch of Kentucky Derby Gentry, drank mint juleps and ate gourmet fare from Barbara & Company. The event was capped by the Run for the Roses at Churchill Downs. We all know the result of that event. Chris Murphy wore a jester's costume but called it a jockey uniform and presided over the call to name the race wager/drawing winners. He deftly and successfully managed the message.

The event continued with music and dancing by Extra Large. The venue was great, the music was great, the food was great, the hosts were great, the weather was great, I could go on. For those who attended, I speak for all and declare the day could not have gone better. A huge thank you to the Condit's and to the committee who worked so hard and so successfully to pull off a most memorable event.

CLUB DRAWING: Chas Eldridge won the drawing. The gift was provided by Bob Ciapponi and included a very generous gift certificate from Crow's Nest.

DETECTIVE REPORT:

Steve Karon served as detective with surprises at each table to entertain the crowd. I don't know the total fines collected, however it certainly looked worth it whatever it cost!

Program:

The program was introduced by Debbie McCarroll. By the way, she's done a great job on programs this quarter, so make sure to thank her for her efforts. I work with her on getting the bios and photos in the Spokes and she's on it!

The speaker was John Feltz who runs a company called Santa Cruz Foam. This is one of those forward thinking really smart tech companies that takes discarded items (In this case seafood waste) and turns them into useable products that don't pollute when their usefulness is over.

I didn't get to see this program, however my dad said it was interesting and well received. We've enjoyed a succession of energetic young entrepreneurs this quarter, folks who want to make a positive difference for all.

Rotary Raffle

There are a few open opportunities for raffle donations. See Masi Bayless to sign up and host a prize.

Sharks beat Avs to Advance

If you weren't paying attention, the big news is the Sharks advanced to the Western Conference Championship series. I think Chas and Keith knew this happened.

Next Week's Program - Unless you want to come here and take a nap, there won't be a reason to arrive at the Elk's next week. Ross wants us to be rested for the Kentucky Derby Party! Oh, and Go Sharks!
