May 17th Meeting Recap

OPENING: Michael played God Bless America (expertly). Tom Parker offered the thought for the day with the poem “The Road Less Traveled,” a very nice offering.

CLUB DRAWING: Nancy Elliott won the raffle drawing. She was given the lucky ticket by Jim Zenner. Her gift was provided by Ian Mackenzie and the prize was a beautiful basket of chocolate. She loved and agreed Mackenzie’s is the world’s best chocolate.

DETECTIVE REPORT:

The detective for the week was Bob Ciapponi and he offered Happy Dollar opportunities. My favorite was Colin Mackenzie fixing Ian’s computer problem. The grasshopper becomes the master. Then Bob called on folks who have served on the Scholarship Committee and the Endowment to recognize their hard work and commitment to the program. Finally he recognized Jim Zenner and his love sowing ways; which Jim took way too far. Another fine effort, great job Bob.

The Scholarship Program – Never Disappoints

Richard Beach introduced each scholar and did a great job keeping the meeting moving along. The committee chose a fantastic group of inspiring scholars to receive the various named awards. The club honored 16 renewal scholarships and 22 new graduating senior scholarships. Each recipient spoke for about one minute and gave a small glimpse into their plans.

President Wes probably said it best. Paraphrasing: he said this fine group of scholarship winners changed his mind about killing himself. Way to go Wes, you really inspire!

Monterey Bay DART Symposium

For those interested in the technologies discussed today, make plans to attend the symposium June 21st at the Monterey Hyatt.

Warriors Sweep Portland!

The Warriors polished off the Trail Blazers Monday night with an overtime win! Now they can watch Milwaukee and Toronto beat each other up over their 7 game series.

Rotary Socials for May and June

Jill Stone advises we have upcoming social events.

May 29th – Wednesday evening event at the home of Sid Slatter. Both Sid and Meredith encourage you to come and enjoy an evening in the Soquel hills and encourage you to carpool because of the very limited parking.

June 26th – Wednesday evening at the home of Wes & Chris Walker. Another fun rural venue for a gathering of friends.

Make sure to contact Jill Stone if you’d like to attend.
