Today Julie Burr will talk to us about her work in Santa Cruz youth violence prevention. She has several years of experience beginning in 2014, working towards equity and social justice and racial equality in the public sector. May 24th Meeting Recap

Sgt At Arms: Tana Widdows

Wonder how the club gets set up for meetings each week? Get to know Tana, she proves her leadership through service with a smile. Thanks Tana, the club is lucky to have you!

OPENING: Michael played God Bless America (expertly). The invocation included the words of Mark Twain by Richard Beach. Berndt from Germany was the guest speaker even though he wasn't on the schedule.

CLUB DRAWING: Arthur Schwartz won the raffle drawing. Tom Foster provided the gift which included a special bottle of wine. Tom also included a custom dinner prepared by him at his house which prompted Wally Walker to declare "I guess Arthur really lost the raffle." Even though that remark was pretty darned funny, the raffle gift was really a true gift of time and talent in the kitchen.

Last Week's Program

Monterey Bay DART (Drones Automation & Robotics Technologies). Chris Bley and Josh Metz presented their program to promote various technologies around the Monterey Bay. Their organization is essentially a Chamber of Commerce type promotion organization that hopes to help bring new tech start-ups and sources of investment capital to the communities ringing the Monterey Bay.

Detective at Work

Tom Foster served as Detective last week and got a little trouble from Aleene as he tried to establish himself as Chief in Charge. It looks like a natural state for Tom, you know all covered in toilet paper & stuff.

Looking Forward to Retirement.

Kevin Dempsey announced his retirement with Happy Dollars. Not to be out done, Jack Ritchey announced the retirements of both he and Nick Wyckoff. All three of them deserve all the good times and good fortunes of retirement.

Rotary Socials for May and June
